Double Bond Primo Levi A Biography:

The Double Bond Carole Angier, 2002 Perhaps the most important writer to emerge from the death camps Primo Levi is known for Survival in Auschwitz The Reawakening and the classic The Periodic Table Angier has spent nearly ten years writing this meticulously researched vivid and moving biography All Is Vanity David Faris, 2011-07-28 Bentley Jones is the gifted managing editor of the University Press in Los Angeles When he is found murdered Lazlo Boyd the Campus Police Chief is ordered by the University President to quickly solve the crime Lazlo and his two lieutenants Javier Lopez and Julia Kim are soon faced with many suspects for Bentley had made many enemies among those University professors whose books he had edited Lazlo uses all of the resources of the University's many departments to pursue the investigation Soon however he uncovers a plot so vast that it threatens the very existence of the University Press But he must move quickly before the plot can be executed A supplementary readers guide includes explanations and references supporting the actual facts and research on which the novel is based The Sex Is Out of This World Sherry Ginn, Michael G. Cornelius, Donald E. Palumbo, 2012-11-15 Science fiction can be translated into real unreality More than a genre like fantasy which creates entirely new realms of possibility science fiction constructs its possibilities from what is real from what is indeed possible or conceivably so This collection then looks to understand and explore the unreal reality to note ways in which our culture's continually changing and evolving mores of sex and sexuality are reflected in dissected by and deconstructed through the genre of science fiction This book is a collection of new essays with the general objective of filling a gap in the literature about sex and science fiction although some work has gone before none of it is recent The essays herein explore the myriad ways in which authors regardless of format print film television etc envision very different beings expressing this most fundamental of human behaviors Gray Zones Jonathan Petropoulos, John Roth, 2006-10-01 Few essays about the Holocaust are better known or more important than Primo Levi's reflections on what he called the gray zone a reality in which moral ambiguity and compromise were pronounced In this volume accomplished Holocaust scholars among them Raul Hilberg Gerhard L Weinberg Christopher Browning Peter Hayes and Lynn Rapaport explore the terrain that Levi identified Together they bring a necessary interdisciplinary focus to bear on timely and often controversial topics in cutting edge Holocaust studies that range from historical analysis to popular culture While each essay utilizes a particular methodology and argues for its own thesis the volume as a whole advances the claim that the more we learn about the Holocaust the more complex that event turns out to be Only if ambiguities and compromises in the Holocaust and its aftermath are identified explored and at times allowed to remain lest resolution deceive us will our awareness of the Holocaust and its implications be as full as possible On Consolation Michael Ignatieff, 2021-11-09 Timely and profound philosophical meditations on how great figures in history literature music and art searched for solace while facing tragedies and crises from the internationally renowned historian of ideas and Booker Prize finalist Michael Ignatieff When we lose someone we love when we suffer loss or defeat when catastrophe strikes war famine pandemic we go in search of consolation Once the province of priests and philosophers the language of consolation has largely vanished from our modern vocabulary and the places where it was offered houses of religion are often empty Rejecting the solace of ancient religious texts humanity since the sixteenth century has increasingly placed its faith in science ideology and the therapeutic How do we console each other and ourselves in an age of unbelief In a series of lapidary meditations on writers artists musicians and their works from the books of Job and Psalms to Albert Camus Anna Akhmatova and Primo Levi esteemed writer and historian Michael Ignatieff shows how men and women in extremity have looked to each other across time to recover hope and resilience Recreating the moments when great figures found the courage to confront their fate and the determination to continue unafraid On Consolation takes those stories into the present movingly contending that we can revive these traditions of consolation to meet the anguish and uncertainties of our precarious twenty first century

Magill's Literary Annual 2003 Salem Press,2003-06 Magill s Literary Annual 2003 is the fiftieth publication in a series that began in 1954 The philosophy behind the annual has been to evaluate critically 200 major examples of serious literature published during the previous year Our focus is to provide coverage for works that are likely to be of particular interest to the general reader that reflect the publishing trends of a given year that add to careers of authors being taught and researched in literature programs and that will stand the test of time By filtering the thousands of books published each year down to two hundred notable titles the editors have provided the busy librarian with an excellent reader s advisory tool and patrons with fodder for book discussion groups and a guide for selection The essay reviews in the Annual also provide a more academic reference review of a work than is typically found in newspapers and other periodical sources This year s works are drawn from such categories as anthropology autobiography biography current affairs diaries economics environment essays history language literary criticism medicine memoirs nature philosophy poetry psychology religion science short fiction sociology technology travel and women s issues The articles are arranged alphabetically by book title A complete list of included titles can be found at the beginning of volume 1 Each 2 000 word article begins with a block of top matter that indicates the title author publisher and price of the work When possible the year of the author s birth is also provided The top matter also includes the number of pages of the book the type of work and when appropriate the time period and locale represented in the text Next comes a capsule description of the work When pertinent a list of principal characters or personages with brief descriptions introduces the review These original essay reviews analyze intent and relative success of the author and the work under discussion To assist the reader further the articles are supplemented by a list of additional reviews for further study Every essay includes a brief biography of the author or authors and thumbnail photographs of the book covers and authors are included as available At the end of volume 2 are four cumulative indexes listing works covered from the years 1977 to 2003 an index of Biographical Works by Subject a Category Index a Title Index and an Author Index The index of Biographical Works by Subject is arranged by subject rather than by author or title New Reflections on Primo Levi Risa Sodi, Millicent Marcus, 2011-06-13 Primo Levi's hold on scholarly critical and public attention continues to grow and his work figures prominently in discourses ranging across the disciplines of Holocaust studies Jewish studies Italian literature politics history and philosophy New Reflections on Primo Levi brings together a leading group of experts and rising scholars to lend fresh insight into an extraordinary man and his times Offering new keys to Levi's output and thought the essays gathered here deepen our understanding of common themes in Levi studies and explore unusual and revealing byways Book jacket Chemical Heritage, 2004 The Schocken Book of Modern Sephardic Literature Ilan Stavans, 2005 Publisher Description Biographies and Autobiographies in Modern Italy Peter Hainsworth, Martin L.
