Double Twist From Ethnography To Morphodynamics:

The Double Twist Pierre Maranda, 2001-01-01 The essays in this intriguing collection all discuss Claude Lévi-Strauss' Canonical Formula. The purpose of the work is to test the significance of the Formula which is controversial and for some worthless. , Chiasmus and Culture Boris Wiseman, Anthony Paul, 2014-03-01 Anyone who has heard of chiasmus is likely to think of it as no more than a piece of rhetorical playfulness at times challenging though useful for supplying a memorable sententious note or for performing a pirouette of syntax and thought. Going beyond traditional rhetoric this volume is concerned with the possibility of using the figure of chiasmus to model a broad array of phenomena from human relations to artistic creation. In the process it provides the first book length study not of chiasmus the rhetorical figure but of chiasmic thought. The contributors are concerned with chiasmic inversion and its place in social interactions cultural creation and more generally human thought and experience. They explore from a variety of angles what the unsettling logic of chiasmus from the Greek meaning cross wise has to tell us about the world human relations cultural patterns psychology and artistic and poetic creation. Quantum Interaction Harald Atmanspacher, Emmanuel Haven, Kirsty Kitto, Derek Raine, 2014-04-17 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 7th International Conference on Quantum Interaction QI 2013 held in Leicester UK in July 2013. The 31 papers presented in this book were carefully selected from numerous submissions. The papers cover various topics on quantum interaction and revolve around four themes information processing retrieval semantic representation and logic cognition and decision making finance economics and social structures and biological systems. On the Order of Chaos Mark S. Mosko, Fred Damon, 2005-10-01 Over the past two decades chaos theory the perception of order previously hidden in phenomena of apparent randomness and disorder has fundamentally transformed the natural sciences. In recent years numerous scholars in the social sciences and humanities have attempted to adapt the insights of chaos theory to their studies of human cultural and social systems. Several of the world's leading anthropologists such as Roy Wagner Marshall Sahlins Marilyn Strathern and Arjun Appadurai have similarly drawn upon particular elements of chaos theory for their inspiration but as yet there is no focused comprehensive treatment of the applicability of chaos theory to anthropology's distinctive ethnographic and cross cultural materials. This edited volume fills the gap with both accessible theoretical discussions of chaos theory applications in anthropology and detailed ethnographic and historical illustrations from Africa and Melanesia. Coming to Shore Marie Mauzé, Michael Eugene Harkin, Sergei Kan, 2004 The Northwest Coast of North America was home to dozens of Native peoples at the time of its first contact with Europeans. The rich artistic ceremonial and oral traditions of these peoples and their preservation of cultural practices have made this region especially attractive for anthropological study. Coming to Shore provides a historical overview of the ethnology and ethnohistory of this region with special attention given to contemporary theoretically informed studies of communities and issues. The first book to explore the role of the Northwest Coast in three distinct national traditions of anthropology American Canadian and French Coming to Shore gives particular consideration to the importance of Claude Lévi Strauss and structuralism as well as more recent social theory in the context of Northwest Coast anthropology In addition contributors explore the blurring boundaries between theoretical and applied anthropology as well as contemporary issues such as land claims criminal justice environmentalism economic development and museum display The contribution of Frederica de Laguna provides a historical background to the enterprise of Northwest Coast anthropology as do the contributions of Claude Lévi Strauss and Marie Mauz Linguistics ,2002 Complex Systems ,2007

Anthropological Linguistics ,2001 Canadian Journal of Linguistics Canadian Linguistic Association,2001 The Hakkas of Sarawak Kee Howe Yong,2013-07-04 This book tells the story of the Hakka Chinese in Sarawak Malaysia who were targeted as communists or communist sympathizers because of their Chinese ethnicity the 1960s and 1970s Thousands of these rural Hakkas were relocated into new villages surrounded by barbed wire or detained at correction centres where incarcerated people were understood to be sacrificial gifts to the war on communism and to the rule of Malaysia's judicial administrative regime The Hakkas of Sarawak looks at how these incarcerated people struggled for survival and dealt with their defeat over the course of a generation Using methodologies of narrative theory and exchange theory Kee Howe Yong provides a powerful account of the ongoing legacies of Cold War oppression and its impact on the lives of people who were victimized by these policies Exchange and Sacrifice Pamela J. Stewart,Andrew Strathern,2008 Inspired by the research of the French anthropologist Daniel de Coppet on exchange death and compensation in the Solomon Islands within the South West Pacific region this edited collection highlights the fundamental connections between exchange and sacrifice as ritual practices within cosmological frameworks The volume builds on both de Coppet's work and that of Marcel Mauss in The Gift and provides new insights from an engaging set of established scholars The chapters in Exchange and Sacrifice stress the dynamic performativity of exchanges and their deep connections with ideas of sacrifice This collection of theoretically and ethnographically focused essays will be valuable to those interested in the classic debates in social cultural anthropology on ritual and religious systems of material and spiritual interaction and the politics of the gift This book is part of the Ritual Studies Monograph Series edited by Pamela J Stewart and Andrew Strathern Department of Anthropology University of Pittsburgh Rich ethnographic detail intellectual challenge and theoretical insight make this excellent collection a must read for scholars of Melanesia and theorists of exchange and sacrifice Naomi M McPherson Pacific Affairs The University of British Columbia The authors present effort and those of all the contributors should be appreciated as a gallant Anglophone tribute to de Coppet's legacy in Melanesian anthropology It is a useful springboard for further mindful explorations and critique of his position as well as of the cosmo ontological problematisation of exchange and sacrifice The Australian Journal of Anthropology Rich ethnographic analyses of the complex relationship between exchange and sacrifice in Melanesian societies Toon Van Meijl Bijdragen tot de Taal Land en Volkenkunde Journal of the Humanities and Social Sciences of
