The GAA v Douglas Hyde Cormac Moore,2012-09-07 On 13 November 1938 just months after his inauguration President Douglas Hyde attended a soccer match between Ireland and Poland In a passionate reaction the GAA declared that by attending a foreign game he had broken Rule 27 the Ban and they removed him as patron One of the most controversial incidents in recent GAA history it strained relations between the GAA and a member of Valera's Fianna Fáil government It also damaged the standing of the Ban and was used extensively by opponents to argue for its removal

Forgotten Patriot Brian Murphy,2016-09-01 It had been a busy few days for Adolf Hitler but Douglas Hyde had not slipped his mind On 25 June 1938 Douglas Hyde became the first President of Ireland His values stood in stark contrast to those of the continental dictator As a Protestant nationalist and a leading figure in the language revival he made the office an inclusive one and determined to be a president for all the people of Ireland He also played a highly significant but previously unheralded role in the state's policy of neutrality during the Second World War Hitler's fleeting fixation with Hyde was that the new presidency significantly diluted Ireland's bonds with the British Empire The accepted wisdom is that Hyde's transition to the presidency was a seamless process but new research shows it only came about on foot of a late political compromise He may have been a compromise candidate but with his non partisan background he was also an inspired choice Forgotten Patriot shows Hyde's considerable impact on the development and perception of the office of President of Ireland
