Absent Minds:

Training minds for the war of ideas Clarisse Berthezène,2024-06-04 This book examines attempts by the Conservative party in the interwar years to capture the brains of the new electorate and create a counter culture to what they saw as the intellectual hegemony of the Left It tells the fascinating story of the Bonar Law Memorial College Ashridge founded in 1929 as a College of citizenship to provide political education through both teaching and publications The College aimed at creating Conservative Fabians who were to publish and disseminate Conservative literature which meant not only explicitly political works but literary historical and cultural work that carried implicit Conservative messages This book modifies our understanding of the history of the Conservative party and popular Conservatism but also more generally of the history of intellectual debate in Britain It sheds new light on the history of the middlebrow and how that category became a weapon for the Conservatives

History of Intellectual Culture 3/2024 Charlotte A. Lerg,Johan Östling,Jana Weiß,Anne Kwaschik,Claudia Roesch,2024-10-21 The third issue of the yearbook History of Intellectual Culture HIC devotes a thematic section to experimental spaces for knowledge production The articles in this section investigate the role of experimental environments as sites for knowledge production during the long nineteenth century thereby extending the scope beyond the confines of traditional academic institutions such as academies laboratories and universities By focusing on intentional communities colonial gardens agricultural colonies and artistic colonies as experimental spaces the authors investigate the intertwined social natural and aesthetic aspects of environments An overarching aim is to develop a distinct perspective rooted in the history of knowledge wherein experiments are conceptualized both as a category employed by the historical actors and as a methodological concept In addition the third issue comprises several individual papers covering a wide range of topics stretching from the U S patent system in the 1930s and anti intellectualism in interwar Britain to the cultural translation of knowledge in the wake of the Holocaust and the circulation of economic knowledge in postwar Sweden The issue also contains several theoretical historiographical and methodological interventions and reflections including a conversation on decolonizing knowledge in academia and beyond

A World at War, 1911-1949,2019-03-27 In A World At War 1911 1949 leading and emerging scholars of the cultural history of the two world wars begin to break down the traditional barriers between the historiographies of the two conflicts identifying commonalities as well as casting new light on each as part of a broader mission in honour of Professor John Horne to expand the boundaries of academic exploration of warfare in the 20th century Utilizing techniques and approaches developed by cultural historians of the First World War this volume showcases and explores four crucial themes relating to the socio cultural attributes and representation of war that cut across both the First and Second World Wars cultural mobilization the nature and depiction of combat the experience of civilians under fire and the different meanings of victory and defeat Contributors are Annette Becker Robert Dale Alex Dowdall Robert Gerwarth John Horne Tom s Irish Heather Jones Alan Kramer Edward Madigan Anthony McElligott Michael S Neiberg John Paul Newman Catriona Pennell Filipe Ribeiro de Meneses Daniel Todman and Jay Winter See inside the book Russell, 2008 Intellectuals, Culture and Public Policy in France Jeremy Aherne, 2010-01-01 French intellectuals have always defined themselves in political terms typically as opponents to a corrupt government but challenging state authority is not the only way intellectuals in France have exerted political influence Jeremy Aherne invokes a neglected dimension of French intellectuals practice where instead of denouncing the worlds of government and public policy French intellectuals become voluntarily entangled within them The book consists of a series of case studies exploring policy domains from religion and secularization to educational reform and the media It explores the political engagement of intellectuals such as Pierre Bourdieu Michel de Certeau and Andr Malraux and will be required reading for scholars of French political and social history Overcoming Matthew Arnold James Walter Caufield, 2012 Opening the way for a reexamination of Matthew Arnold s unique contributions to ethical criticism James Walter Caufield emphasizes the central role of philosophical pessimism in Arnold s master tropes of culture and conduct Caufield uses Arnold s ethics as a lens through which to view key literary and cultural movements of the past 150 years demonstrating that Arnoldian conduct is grounded in a Victorian ethic of renouncement a form of altruism that wholly informs both Arnold s poetry and prose and sets him apart from the many nineteenth century public moralists Arnold s thought is situated within a cultural and philosophical context that shows the continuing relevance of renouncement to much contemporary ethical reflection from the political kenosis of Giorgio Agamben and the pensiero debole of Gianni Vattimo to the ethical criticism of Wayne C Booth and Martha Nussbaum In refocusing attention on Arnold s place within the broad history of critical and social thought Caufield returns the poet and critic to his proper place as a founding father of modern cultural criticism Publisher s note The First World War and the Mobilization of Biblical Scholarship Andrew Mein, Nathan MacDonald, Matthew A. Collins, 2019-02-07 This fascinating collection of essays charts for the first time the range of responses by scholars on both sides of the conflict to the outbreak of war in August 1914 The volume examines how biblical scholars like their compatriots from every walk of life responded to the great crisis they faced and with relatively few exceptions were keen to contribute to the war effort Some joined up as soldiers More commonly however biblical scholars and theologians put pen to paper as part of the torrent of patriotic publication that arose both in the United Kingdom and in Germany The contributors reveal that in many cases scholars were repeating or refining common arguments about the responsibility for the war In Germany and Britain where the Bible was still central to a Protestant national culture we also find numerous more specialized works where biblical scholars brought their own disciplinary expertise to bear on the matter of war in general and this war in particular The volume s contributors thus offer new insights into the place of both the Bible and biblical scholarship in early 20th century culture
