

Research and development costs

Accounting for R&D

Research: planned efforts to find out new information to create a project/service/process/technique, or improve one used currently.

Development: take findings from research and produce plan to create the desired item or improve existing one.

Accounting for Research and Development Costs (Expense)

Only acceptable method of accounting for research and development costs is a direct charge to expense, with two exceptions (U.S. GAAP):

1. Materials, equipment, or facilities that have alternative future uses.

Capitalize and depreciate assets over their useful lives (not life of project).
