Comparative Studies in Accounting Regulation in Europe John Flower,Chris Lefebvre,1997 HC 219-ii - European Scrutiny Commission Second Report of 2014-15 Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: European Scrutiny Committee,2014-06-20 ECIC2011-Proceedings of the 3rd European Conference on on Intellectual Capital Geoff Turner,2011-04-18 These proceedings represent the work of presenters at the 3rd European Conference on Intellectual Capital ECIC 2011 The Conference is hosted this year by the University of Nicosia in Cyprus The Conference Chair is Geoff Turner from the University of Nicosia and the Programme Chair is Clemente Minonne from the School of Management and Law Zurich University of Applied Sciences Winterthur Switzerland The opening keynote address is given by John Girard from Minot State University in the USA John will address the question Social Knowledge Are we ready for the future The second day of the conference will be opened by Ludo Pyis from AREOPA in Belgium who will consider Intellectual Capital Accounting how to measure the unmeasurable We also look forward to a Knowledge Cafe on the topic of What intellectual capital ideas and developments do you expect to live and see facilitated by Helen Paige from The Paige Group South Australia Legal Remedies in European Tax Law Pasquale Pistone,Group for Research on European International Taxation,2009 Until now the topic of legal remedies in European direct tax law has been significantly underexposed within the academic tax community This book aims at filling this gap by providing the typical approaches to European tax law with a general vision on European law and puts together theory and practice but also includes contributions on selected relevant issues arising in the protection of taxpayers rights Thirtieth Report of Session 2012-13 Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: European Scrutiny Committee,2013-02-06 Accounting Regulation in Europe S. McLeay,1999-04-19 This book describes how the rules of accounting are developed It provides a new perspective on European accounting showing how laws standards decrees and other regulations evolve discussing and comparing the institutional settings and the legislative processes within each country Each chapter has been written by a leading expert on financial accounting in the established countries of the European Union The Economic Constitution Tony Prosser,2014-03-13 There has been little analysis of the constitutional framework for management of the UK economy either in constitutional law or regulatory studies This is in contrast to many other countries where the concept of an economic constitution is well established as it is in the law of the European Union Given the extensive role of the state in attempting to resolve recent financial crises in the UK and elsewhere in Europe it is particularly important to develop such an analysis This book sets out different meanings of an economic constitution and applies them to key areas of economic management including taxation and public borrowing the management of public spending including the Spending Review monetary policy financial services regulation industrial policy including state shareholdings and government contracting It analyses the key institutions involved such as the Treasury and the Bank of England also including a number of less well known bodies such as the Office for Budget Responsibility There is also coverage of the international context in which these institutions operate especially the European Union and the World Trade Organisation It thus provides an account of the public law applying to economic management in the UK This book also adopts a critical approach assessing the degree to which there is coherence in the arrangements for economic management the degree to which economic policy making is constrained by constitutional norms and the degree to which economic management is subject to deliberation and accountability through Parliament the courts and other institutions
