Assessing the effects of New Labour s education policies on primary schools this book discusses the impact of policies on primary school practices as well as looking at the views and experiences of primary school teachers and pupils South African Accounting Education Stocktake Jaco Fouchè,Nico van der Merwe,2020-04-07 This book is intended to take stock of the current state of accounting education with a specific emphasis on the South African situation It provides a critical overview of the current published research and identified gaps Through this it aims to equip accounting academics with information and tools to motivate them to research the field of accounting education to improve teaching and learning It also aids in the identification of suitable research topics in this regard and highlights potential pitfalls in researching accounting education. The book therefore focuses on accounting educators as specialists in their respective disciplines. Different authors with a keen interest in a specific area relating to accounting education research wrote each chapter in this book. It forms a planned collective work assembled by appropriately qualified and experienced scholars in the accounting education field which generates a new conceptual synthesis that advances scholarship of accounting education research since no such synthesis currently exists for accounting education research in South Africa.

Teaching and Learning in Middle and Secondary Schools Clifford H. Edwards, 2005. For undergraduate and graduate courses in Middle and Secondary Methods. Hoping to promote teacher excellence and involve teachers in school improvement, this author proffers the learning community approach as a model for how schools can best educate students. Edwards suggests that education's fundamental problems can be solved through the learning communities approach which offers an ordered, consistent way to satisfy learners' needs, foster meaningful learning and develop the moral attributes necessary to relate successfully to one's community. Through an emphasis on the National Board of Professional Teaching standards, strong discussion of technology and examination of the special challenges facing middle and secondary schools, he easily bridges the gap between the theories he advocates and actual classroom practice.
