filtered downward to the ground Then in the gardens of the Prince alleys thick with brambles displayed their dim perspective the grass resumed its emerald hue a tuft of poppies renewed the splendor of its sumptuous flowers and a snowy flight of steps was faintly visible through the mist down a distant avenue At last suddenly the sky grew purple arrows of light athwart the bushes made every drop of water on the leaves sparkle A pheasant alighted heavily a crane shook her white wings and with a long cry flew slowly upwards while the earth smoked like a caldron and the birds loudly hailed the rising sun As soon as the divine luminary rose from the horizon the sound of a gong was heard It was struck with a monotonous rhythm of overpowering melancholy four heavy strokes four light strokes four heavy strokes and so on It was the salute to the coming day and the call to morning prayers A hearty youthful peal of laughter which broke forth suddenly drowned these pious sounds for an instant and two men appeared dark against the clear sky at the top of the snowy staircase They paused a moment on the uppermost step to admire the lovely mass of brambles ferns and flowering shrubs which wreathed the balustrade of the staircase Then they descended slowly through the fantastic shadows cast across the steps by the branches Reaching the foot of the stairs they moved quickly aside that they might not upset a tortoise creeping leisurely along the last step This tortoise's shell had been gilded but the gilding was somewhat tarnished by the dampness of the grass The two men moved down the avenue The younger of the pair was scarcely twenty years old but would have passed for more from the proud expression of his face and the easy confidence of his glance Still when he laughed he seemed a child but he laughed seldom and a sort of haughty gloom darkened his noble brow His costume was very simple Over a robe of gray crape he wore a mantle of blue satin without any embroidery He carried an open fan in his hand His comrade's dress was on the contrary very elegant His robe was made of a soft white silk just tinged with blue suggestive of reflected moonlight It fell in fine folds to his feet and was confined at the waist by a girdle of black velvet The wearer was twenty four years old he was a specimen of perfect beauty The warm pallor of his face his mockingly sweet eyes and above all the scornful indifference apparent in his whole person exercised a strange charm His hand rested on the richly wrought hilt of one of the two swords whose points lifted up the folds of his black velvet cloak the loose hanging sleeves of which were thrown back over his shoulders The two friends were bare headed their hair twisted like a rope was knotted around the top of their heads But where are you taking me gracious master suddenly cried the older of the two young men This is the third time you have asked that question since we left the palace Iwakura But you have not answered once light of my eyes Well I want to surprise you Shut your eyes and give me your hand Iwakura obeyed and his companion led him a few steps across the grass Now look he said Iwakura opened his eyes and uttered a low cry of astonishment
