Dynamics Of Human Reproduction:

Dynamics of Human Reproduction James W. Wood, 2017 Awarded the W W Howells Award for the Outstanding Book in Biological Anthropology this volume presents a comprehensive integrated and up to date overview of the major physiological and behavioral factors affecting human reproduction In attempting to identify the most important causes of variation in fertility within and among human populations Wood summarizes data from a wide range of societies Trained as an anthropologist as well as a demographer he devotes special attention to so called natural fertility populations in which modern contraceptives and induced abortion are not used to limit reproductive output Such an emphasis enables him to study the interaction of biology and behavior with particular clarity The volume weaves together the physiological demographic and biometric approaches to human fertility in a way that will encourage future interdisciplinary research Instead of offering a general overview the focus is to answer one question Why does fertility and the number of live births vary from couple to couple within any particular population and from population to population across the human species as a whole Topics covered include ovarian function conception and pregnancy intrauterine mortality reproductive maturation and senescence coital frequency and the waiting time to conception marriage patterns and the initiation of reproduction the fertility reducing effects of breastfeeding the impact of maternal nutrition on reproduction and reproductive seasonality This unique combination of comprehensive subject matter and an integrated analytical approach makes the book ideally suited both as a graduate level textbook and as a reference work Provided by publisher

Dynamics of Human Reproduction James W. Wood, a must have reference text for any researcher interested in the biocultural determinants of human fertility and is appropriate as a textbook at the graduate level I expect it to remain a standard in the literature of demographic anthropology and reproductive ecology for many years to come American Journal of Physical Anthropology The Biology and Medical Dynamics of Human Reproduction Laurence A. Cole, 2014 This book covers human female biology how the menstrual cycle is controlled how steroidogenesis is controlled and how the follicle and the egg are formed This book covers male biology and how steroid hormones are made and how sperm are synthesised and matured Then this book covers sex biology such as how the brain deals with libido and sexual images and how the brain controls erection and ejaculation This book deals with how sperm are matured upon intercourse how fertilisation takes place and how the fertilised embryo is matured and implants in the uterus The subjects of sexuality and homosexuality chromosome disorders and hydatidiform moles are carefully discussed and considered Sexual maturation of the foetus during pregnancy is carefully considered This book carefully describes puberty adrenarche and menarche The subject of menopause is carefully considered The subject of major bacterial and viral and sexual diseases is carefully considered as is the subject of reproductive cancers In writing this book care has been taken to update everything and check out the information available on medline and on the internet This is a textbook for undergraduates medical students and graduates describing all the details of human reproduction It is also the only up to date book on the market Having examined a total 70 books on human reproduction obstetrics and gynaecology they all with no exceptions include mostly out of date science This is corrected in this book This book is also a monograph for reproductive biology scientists covering all the most recent findings in this field It can also be sold as a general obstetrics and gynaecology information source for use by physicians the general public and in libraries This is a unique one of a kind reference on human reproduction Human Biology Raymond Pearl,1996 Includes section Recent literature useful in the study of human biology Annales Chirurgiae Et Gynaecologiae ,1982 Research Grants Index National Institutes of Health (U.S.).
