Early Christian Experience:

The Spirit of Early Christian Thought Robert Louis Wilken, 2003-01-01 Many of the problems afflicting American education are the result of a critical shortage of qualified teachers in the classrooms The teacher crisis is surprisingly resistant to reforms and is getting worse This analysis of the causes underlying the crisis seeks to offer concrete affordable proposals for effective reform Vivian Troen and Katherine Boles two experienced classroom teachers and education consultants argue that because teachers are recruited from a pool of underqualified candidates given inadequate preparation and dropped into a culture of isolation without mentoring support or incentives for excellence they are programmed to fail Half quit within their first five years Troen and Boles offer an alternative a model of reform they call the Millennium School which changes the way teachers work and improves the quality of their teaching When teaching becomes a real profession they contend more academically able people will be drawn into it colleges will be forced to improve the quality of their education and better prepared teachers will enter the classroom and improve the profession

Prophecy and Inspired Speech in Early Christianity and Its Hellenistic Environment Christopher Forbes, 1995

The Holy Spirit and Christian Experience Simeon Zahl, 2020-06-11 In The Holy Spirit and Christian Experience Simeon Zahl presents a fresh vision for Christian theology that foregrounds the relationship between theological ideas and the experiences of Christians He argues that theology is always operating in a vibrant landscape of feeling and desiring and shows that contemporary theology has often operated in problematic isolation from these experiential dynamics He then argues that a theologically serious doctrine of the Holy Spirit not only authorizes but requires attention to Christian experience Against this background Zahl outlines a new methodological approach to Christian theology that attends to the emotional and experiential power of theological ideas This methodology draws on recent interdisciplinary work on affect and emotion which has shown that affects are powerful motivating realities that saturate all dimensions of human thinking and acting In the process Zahl also explains why contemporary theology has often been ambivalent about subjective experience and demonstrates that current discourse about God s activity in the world is often artificially abstracted from experience and embodiment At the heart of the book Zahl proposes a new account of the theology of grace from this experiential and pneumatological perspective Focusing on the work of the Holy Spirit in salvation and sanctification he retrieves insights from Augustine Luther and Philip Melanchthon to present an affective and Augustinian vision of salvation as a pedagogy of desire In articulating this vision Zahl engages critically with recent emphasis on participation and theosis in Christian soteriology and charts a new path forward for Protestant theology in a landscape hitherto dominated by the theological visions of Barth and Aquinas

Experience with the Supernatural in Early Christian Times Shirley Jackson Case,2005-12-01 The Bible is rich in miracles Supernaturalism runs like a scarlet thread through the whole book from Genesis to Revelation Many people tend to pass hastily over the miracle stories however and find greater satisfaction in the Bible s less spectacular portrayals of moral ideas and spiritual struggles So how can we account for the prominence of the miraculous in Hebrew religion and more particularly in early Christianity Why did the advocates of the new religion concern themselves so extensively with the imagery of supernaturalism These are the questions Shirley Jackson Case seeks to answer in this provocative work SHIRLEY JACKSON CASE 1872 1947 was a liberal theologian at the University of Chicago Case was regarded as perhaps the finest scholar of the socio historical method which viewed the Bible as telling and reflecting the history of a movement that had its own needs and goals She is also the author of The Historicity of Jesus which is one of the earliest book length scholarly refutations of the Jesus Myth

Early Christian Encounters with Town and Countryside Markus Tiwald,Jürgen Zangenberg,2021-04-12 Ever since Jesus walked the hills of Galilee and Paul travelled the roads of Asia Minor and Greece Christianity has shown a remarkable ability to adapt itself to various social and cultural environments Recent research has demonstrated that these environments can only be very insufficiently termed as rural or urban Neither was Jesus Galilee only rural nor Paul s Asia only urban On the background of ongoing research on the diversity of social environments in the Early Empire this volume will focus on various early Christian worlds as witnessed in canonical and non canonical texts How did Early Christians experience and react to rural and urban life What were the mechanisms behind this adaptability Papers will analyze the relation between urban Christian beginnings and the role of the rural Jesus tradition In what sense did the image of Jesus the Galilean village Jew change when his message was carried into the cities of the Mediterranean world from Jerusalem to Athens or Rome Papers will not only deal with various personalities or literary works whose various attitudes towards urban life became formative for future Christianity They will also explore the different local milieus that demonstrate the wide range of Christian cultural perspectives

Studying Christian Spirituality David B. Perrin,2024-04-23 Studying Christian Spirituality proposes a framework to discover how spirituality can be understood beyond the conventional boundaries that religions have established Its nine chapters discuss a wide variety of issues and questions which include definitions of spirituality the impact of models of God human spiritual development the importance of context historical criticism anthropology interpretation of texts and art and examples of spiritual practice David B Perrin clearly explains the traditional relationships between Christian spirituality and theology and history He also proposes greater connections with the human sciences such as philosophy psychology phenomenology and sociology and reshapes the classical approaches to Christian spirituality its texts practices and experience This interdisciplinary volume is an essential reference for scholars and students at all levels who desire to develop a deeper understanding of Christian spirituality s research methods and its relevance to the world today

The Philosophy of Christology Hue Woodson,2022-01-31 Given the perpetual problem of the historical Jesus there remains an ongoing posing of the question to and a continuous seeking of the meaningfulness of Christology From the earliest reckoning with the relationship between Jesus of Nazareth and the Christ of faith what it means to do Christology today remains at the methodological center of the task and scope of every systematic theology Whether giving an account of Albert Schweitzer s bringing an end to the quest for the historical Jesus in 1906 or attending to Rudolf Bultmann s period of no quest culminating with his demythologization project in the 1940s how we still think of Christology as a matter of questions and concerns with meaning speaks to an unavoidable philosophizing of Christology In this way The Philosophy of Christology offers both a particular history of Christology in conjunction with a particular philosophy of Christology which assesses the theological contributions by a group of Bultmannians following Bultmann in the 1950s and 1960s up to what can be reimagined by repurposing Jacques Derrida s philosophical question into the meaning of love in 2002
