Imperialism Guided Notes

Imperialism is the extension of a nation's power over other lands.

Colonies are land occupied and organized for another nation's government.

What is Social Darwinism the attitude held by many Europeans of the time that there is a natural selection among people. Only the fit or those willing to adapt to change will survive. Europeans used this idea both to encourage and to justify their conquests. This basic attitude was all you don't adapt or in this case you were not strong enough and deserve to be conquered.

Types of Imperialism

a Protectorate is a political unit that depends on another government for it's protection.

an Indirect Rule means that local rulers can still maintain some power and status as the ruler collected taxes.

Advantages of Direct Rule

1. Made it easier to get what you wanted because you don't have to fight with the local leaders and rebellions
2. Made governments changed because they don't need to pay people from home to run government for them.

What is Direct Rule?

Direct Rule is when local elites or government officials were completely removed from power and replaced with a new set of officials brought from the ruling country. Many feared that letting the natives have political rights would cause revolutions and they would then would take power away. It was also clear who was in charge and let the conquered person know their land was gone/lost.

Imperialism

Europe looked to Africa and Asia for sources of industrial materials and a place to sell the things they made in factories.

Imperialism in the past

Europeans looked to other countries as a way to trade and sell but not as a place to take over and make their nations more powerful than the next.
