Ligon Duncan,2008 Most people even Christians live in a state of semi denial about death We hesitate to say a dearly loved relative or friend died We prefer to say she passed away or she went to be with the Lord Even unbelievers who assume that everyone ends up in Heaven are known to say something such as he s gone to a better place We however do not have to live in ignorance about life after death for either believers or unbelievers God s Word the Bible tells us everything we need to know It doesn t tell us everything we might want to know but it tells us everything God wants us to know which means everything we need to know for our instruction and comfort And then God has provided ministers to mine His Word for its truths and teach them to the rest of us Such a man is J Ligon Duncan who is both a scholar and a pastor With a scholar s mind and a pastor s heart Dr Duncan has given to us the excellent book Fear Not which covers extensively all aspects of death including what happens to believers immediately after death the resurrection the final judgment and then the eternal state Along the way he sheds helpful light on several troublesome passages especially concerning the final Day of Judgment This is a book to inform and encourage every Christian All of us will be edified by its pages It is my pleasure to commend it to every Christian reader Jerry Bridges P 4 of cover      THE CRAFT OF LIVING AND DYING WELL Mathew Philip,2026-02-16 What does it mean to die well and to minister well to the dying With over three decades in ministry and nearly two decades in hospice chaplaincy Rev Dr Mathew Philip offers a profound theological and pastoral reflection that bridges medieval Christian wisdom with modern spiritual
