According to the Scriptures David Allen,2018 What Old Testament texts are quoted in the New Testament how are they used and what might such analysis mean for the contemporary reader Focusing in particular on the passion narratives in the Synoptic Gospels According to the Scriptures seeks to engage with these questions Dying, We Live Kenneth Grayston,1990 This critical study provides a book by book survey of every New Testament reference to the death and resurrection of Christ Drawing on a rich arsenal of both literary and historical exegetical tools Grayston introduces a vast range of scholarship offers brilliant and original insights illuminates disputed points and portrays the distinctive features of each New Testament author s theology In the process he maintains that talk and thought about the death of Christ have as much to do with human problems as they have with questions of belief A Theology of the Cross Charles B. Cousar,1990-05-01 In Paul s epistles the crucifixion story reveals a God who is free and in no way bound by human categories or expectations Yet God in Christ chooses to be engaged in the very depths of the human predicament The message of the crucifixion is that God s power is manifested in weakness not in strength The author believes that this weakness as strength should be the focal point of the church s identity However a celebration of weakness is in complete opposition to traditional American beliefs in personal strength and a powerful church The Meaning of Jesus' Death Barry D. Smith,2016-12-01 Barry D Smith studies the salvation historical meaning of Jesus death commonly known as the atonement in the New Testament Smith works his way through the four theories of the doctrine of the atonement that have emerged in the history of Christian theology moral influence governmental satisfaction and Christus victor theories Smith works from the premise that for a theory of the atonement to be successful no biblical data may be omitted or distorted and the generalized concepts used to comprehend the biblical data must be easily seen as implicit in the data From this vantage point Smith advances a formulation of the atonement that is best supported by the biblical text itself The conclusion Smith reaches is that the biblical data supports both the penal substitutionary version of the satisfaction theory and the Christus victor theory of the atonement each of which should be viewed as two parts of a more inclusive theory of atonement present in the New Testament Not Ashamed of the Gospel Morna D. Hooker,2004-10-08 Convinced that Christ s crucifixion cannot be interpreted in isolation from his resurrection Morna Hooker here gives a comprehensive and inspiring survey of the New Testament s teaching about the death of Christ By looking closely at the great variety of images and metaphors employed in the writings of Paul and in Mark Matthew Luke Acts John Hebrews 1 Peter 1 John and Revelation Hooker discusses the different ways in which the authors of the New Testament searched for and then discovered meaning in the death and resurrection of Christ Hooker shows that the concept of substitutionary atonement does not take us far enough in understanding the profound truth taught especially by Paul that Christ became what we are in order that we might become what he is He took his place as one of us and died our death in order that we might be identified with him both in his death and in his resurrection She also demonstrates in meaningful new ways that the message of the cross the message that lies at the heart of the gospel is as relevant and as disturbing to the present generation as it was to its first hearers Provocative at times even controversial this volume will be highly stimulating to readers who are prepared to take a fresh look at the New Testament evidence

The Trial and Death of Jesus Christ James Stalker, 2014-09-08

The Trial and Death of Jesus Christ A Devotional History of our Lord's Passion by James Stalker According to the accounts in the New Testament Jesus whom Christians believe to be the Son of God as well as the Messiah was arrested tried and sentenced by Pontius Pilate to be scourged and finally crucified Collectively referred to as the Passion Jesus suffering and redemptive death by crucifixion are the central aspects of Christian theology concerning the doctrines of salvation and atonement Jesus crucifixion is described in the four canonical gospels referred to in the New Testament Epistles attested to by other ancient sources and is firmly established as a historical event confirmed by non Christian sources though there is no consensus on the precise details of what exactly occurred In modern scholarship the baptism of Jesus and his crucifixion are considered to be two historically certain facts about Jesus For example James Dunn states that these two facts in the life of Jesus command almost universal assent and rank so high on the almost impossible to doubt or deny scale of historical facts that they are often the starting points for the study of the historical Jesus Bart Ehrman states that the crucifixion of Jesus on the orders of Pontius Pilate is the most certain element about him John Dominic Crossan states that the crucifixion of Jesus is as certain as any historical fact can be Eddy and Boyd state that it is now firmly established that there is non Christian confirmation of the crucifixion of Jesus Craig Blomberg states that most scholars in the third quest for the historical Jesus consider the crucifixion indisputable Christopher M Tuckett states that although the exact reasons for the death of Jesus are hard to determine one of the indisputable facts about him is that he was crucified

A treatise on the physical cause of the death of Christ, and its relation to the principles and practice of Christianity William STROUD (M.D.), 1847

The Murder of Jesus John F. MacArthur, 2004-03-30

The pieces are in place The curtain rises for the final act God is about to die An unprecedented conspiracy of injustice cruelty and religious and political interests sentenced a man guilty of no crimes to the most barbaric method of execution ever devised The victim was no mere man Jesus was God in the flesh The Creator of life died How did such a thing come to be Who were the onlookers the players the fakes frauds and heroes What was it like in the Upper Room that night in the shadows of Gethsemane or in the Praetorium awaiting Pilate's verdict What is the meaning of the last words Jesus uttered as He gasped for breath on the cross What if all the facts you now so well could come alive in your mind and heart as a living story rather than as a 2000 year old ancient account By piecing together the narrative from the perspective of the participants John MacArthur invites you to relive the most awesome injustice in the history of man the unparalleled triumph of the sovereignty of God and the passion of Christ Jesus of Nazareth neither baptised nor slain by Jew or Gentile
