Death Of Yugoslavia

Laura Silber, Allan Little

Death Of Yugoslavia:

The Death of Yugoslavia Laura Silber, Allan Little, 1995 The Death of Yugoslavia is the first account to go behind the public face of battle and into the closed worlds of the key players in the war Laura Silber Balkans correspondent for the Financial Times and Allan Little award winning BBC journalist plot the road to war and the war itself They pinpoint the key events that occurred in the capitals of Belgrade and Zagreb and in villages ravaged by ethnic cleansing and draw on eye witness testimony scrupulous research and hundreds of interviews to give unprecedented access to the facts behind the media stories Challenging the received wisdom that the war occurred as a spontaneous and inevitable eruption of ethnic hatreds the authors expose step by step a plan to divide the country by force of arms Could anything have been done to prevent this terrible tragedy What will be its lasting effects The authors consider these questions and assess the present situation and its implications for future international relations BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved

Ethnic Nationalism Bogdan Denis Denitch, 1994 This essential resource provides a cogent comprehensive historical analysis of Yugoslavia's demise one that clearly identifies events and trends that urgently demand the world's attention

Yugoslavia Laura Silber, Allan Little, 1996 This companion book to the series of five hour long programs premiering on The Discovery Channel in January 1996 helps explain to the broadest range of readers how the country of Yugoslavia arrived at the atrocities that no one could predict when the Berlin Wall collapsed in late 1989 Color photos maps

Milosevic Adam LeBor, 2004-01-01 Offers an account of a man who started wars whose rhetoric whipped up Serb nationalism to a frenzy of ethnic cleansing and yet who retained for a decade the ability to wrap the international community round his little finger

NATO and the Western Balkans Niall Mulchinock, 2017-03-28 This book provides a critical examination of NATO's evolving strategic and operational roles in the Western Balkans since the disintegration of Yugoslavia in 1991 with a particular focus on Bosnia Kosovo and the former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia in both the conflict and post conflict phases While there is a myriad of literature available on the various conflicts that engulfed the former Yugoslavia after the collapse of communism less has been written on NATO's overall role in these conflicts This text therefore fills the gap offering a thematic study of NATO's roles and duties in this region from the early 1990s to the present day The levels of analysis introduced by Mulchinock provide a new framework for examining NATO's response to the Yugoslav wars of secession focusing on the role of key NATO member states and the role of different NATO Secretaries General along with the impact of inter institutional cooperation and conflict with other international organisations

A Legal Geography of Yugoslavia's Disintegration Ana S. Trbovich, 2008-02-05 A Legal Geography of Yugoslavia's Disintegration explains the violent break up of the former Yugoslavia in early 1990s in the context of two legal principles sovereignty and the self determination of peoples The author recounts Yugoslavia's history with a focus on the country's internal administrative divisions and aspirations of different ethnic groups in order to effectively explain the genesis of the international community's political decision to recognize the right of secession for the largest administrative units of Yugoslavia Trobovich a Serbian author writing from the perspective of a disengaged scholar tackles her subject matter with clarity and detail and offers an intriguing analysis of Kosovo's future status international recognition of secession implications of Yugoslavia's disintegration for other conflicts invoking right to self-determination and international intervention in ethnic conflicts

The Politics of Social Ties Mila Dragojevic, 2016-02-24 After forced migration to a country where immigrants form an ethnic majority why do some individuals support exclusivist and nationalist political parties while others do not Based on extensive interviews and an original survey of 1 200 local Serbs and ethnic Serbian refugees fleeing violent conflict in Bosnia and Croatia The Politics of Social Ties argues that those immigrants who form close interpersonal networks with others who share their experiences such as the loss of family friends and home in addition to the memory of ethnic violence from past wars are more likely to vote for nationalist parties Any political mobilization occurring within these interpersonal networks is not strategic rather individuals engage in political discussion with people who have a greater capacity for mutual empathy over the course of discussing other daily concerns This book adds the dimension of ethnic identity to the analysis of individual political behavior without treating ethnic groups as homogeneous social categories It adds valuable insight to the existing literature on political behavior by emphasizing the role of social ties among individuals

From the Death of Tito to the Death of Yugoslavia Raif Dizdarević, 2009

Prosecuting War Crimes and Genocide Howard Ball, 1999 Combining history politics and critical analysis he revisits the killing fields of Cambodia documents the three-month Hutu machete genocide of about 800 000 Tutsi villagers in Rwanda and casts recent headlines from Kosovo in the light of these other conflicts
