Concept Of Intentionality:

Intentionality Gábor Forrai, György Kampis, 2005 This book contains eleven original papers about intentionality Some explore current problems such as the status of intentional content the intentionality of perception and emotion the connections between intentionality and normativity the relationship between intentionality and consciousness the characteristics of the intentional idiom Others discuss the work of historical figures like Locke Brentano Husserl and Frege

Heidegger's Theory of Intentionality Niels Ole Bernsen, 1986 Aquinas's Theory of Perception Anthony J. Lisska, 2016-06-09 Anthony J Lisska presents a new analysis of Thomas Aquinas s theory of perception While much work has been undertaken on Aquinas s texts little has been devoted principally to his theory of perception and less still on a discussion of inner sense The thesis of intentionality serves as the philosophical backdrop of this analysis while incorporating insights from Brentano and from recent scholarship The principal thrust is on the importance of inner sense a much overlooked area of Aquinas s philosophy of mind with special reference to the vis cogitativa Approaching the texts of Aquinas from contemporary analytic philosophy Lisska suggests a modest innate or structured interpretation for the role of this inner sense faculty Dorothea Frede suggests that this faculty is an embarrassment for Aquinas to the contrary the analysis offered in this book argues that were it not for the vis cogitativa Aquinas s philosophy of mind would be an embarrassment By means of this faculty of inner sense Aquinas offers an account of a direct awareness of individuals of natural kinds referred to by Aquinas as incidental objects of sense which comprise the principal ontological categories in Aquinas s metaphysics By using this awareness of individuals of a natural kind Aquinas can make better sense out of the process of abstraction using the active intellect intellectus agens Were it not for the vis cogitativa Aquinas would be unable to account for an awareness of the principal ontological category in his metaphysics

Speech and System Peter Bornedal, 1997 In this investigation creative writing and philosophy are shown to be specific types of language games distinct from speech as used in communicative interaction between individuals The author deals with thinking speech and systems respectively I Thinking is understood as a soliloquy preceding any kind of creative activity and any kind of writing The author analyses thinking as a subject s listening to its own voice with a split between I and me close to Derrida s notion of difference as a condition for the production of meaning II Analyzing with reference to Benveniste Austin and Searle what speech is the author deduces the so called pragmatic subject in contrast to the first section s reflective In its elementary speech act the pragmatic subject does constitute itself in rudimentary ways III In dealing with the product of reflective activity the author finds the so called textual inconsistency or logical aporias inherent in any logical or pseudo logical system to be in line with Goedel s incompleteness theorems and he rejects the tendency to use deconstruction to understand these aporias as is usual in Western metaphysics The author s philosophical position is closest to that of Paul Ricoeur and Jacques Derrida but on crucial issues he advances his own ideas on the relationship between speech and writing also establishing a criticism of metaphysics that may be more
