Guide Keith B. Romney,1983 Condo Conquest Randy K. Lippert,2019-01-15 When condominiums first emerged in North American cities in the 1960s they were a new kind of housing governed by boards of resident owners volunteering in a community Condo Conquest shows how the condo and its inner governance have since become something else entirely taken over or conquered by an assemblage of firms specializing in condo law real estate security and property management as well as growing numbers of non resident investors who purchase condo units as commodities Drawing on the accounts of residents and board directors in Toronto and New York and myriad other sources Randy Lippert takes a close look at the inner workings of condoization He shows how condo governance increasingly involves a complex set of legal social and spatial relationships among various elements assembled together including commercial agents forms of knowledge and technologies The first major study of condominium governance in North America Condo Conquest questions assumptions about the condo and its governance By illuminating the complex set of agents processes and forms of knowledge that have taken over the condo world Lippert discerns a number of troubling trends that imperil the condo s future and undermine the integrity of urban communities Governing Practices Michelle Brady,Randy K. Lippert,2016-01-01 Neoliberalism is among the most commonly used concepts in the social sciences Furthermore it is one of the most influential factors that have shaped the formation of public policy and politics In Governing Practices Michelle Brady and Randy Lippert bring together prominent scholars in sociology criminology anthropology geography and policy studies to extend and refine the current conversation about neoliberalism The collection argues that a new methodological approach to analyzing contemporary policy and political change is needed United by the common influence of Foucault s governmentality approach and an ethnographic imaginary the collection presents original research on a diverse range of case studies including public private partnerships the governance of condos community and state statistics nanopolitics philanthropy education reform and pay day lending These diverse studies add considerable depth to studies on governmentality and neoliberalism through a focus on governmental practices that have not previously been the focus of sustained analysis Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third
