Color Del Verano:

Latin American Writers on Gay and Lesbian Themes David William Foster, 1994-11-07 Gay and lesbian themes in Latin American literature have been largely ignored This reference fills this gap by providing more than a hundred alphabetically arranged entries for Latin American authors who have treated gay or lesbian material in their works Each entry explores the significance of gay and lesbian themes in a particular author's writings and closes with a bibliography of primary and secondary sources The figures included have a professed gay identity or have written on gay or lesbian themes in either a positive or negative way or have authored works in which a gay sensibility can be identified The volume pays particular attention to the difficulty of ascribing North American critical perspectives to Latin American authors and studies these authors within the larger context of Latin American culture The book includes entries for men and women and for authors from Latin American countries as well as Latino writers from the United States The entries are written by roughly 60 expert contributors from Latin America the U S and Europe

Dialogic Aspects in the Cuban Novel of the 1990s Ángela Dorado-Otero, 2014 The author analyses six novels of the boom in Cuban fiction of the 1990s that subvert homogenized views of Cuban identity This book examines six Cuban novels published between 1991 and 1999 all part of the new boom of the Cuban novel in the 1990s It analyses how in undermining monolithic representations of reality these texts employ discursive techniques that question absolute truths defy established boundaries of literary genres and challenge concepts of national gender and individual identity The authors studied in this book Reinaldo Arenas Leonardo Padura Fuentes Abilio Estévez Dana Chaviano Yanitzia Canetti and Zo Valdés are placed beyond the dichotomy of outside and inside Cuba in order to focus on the fluidity and heterogeneity of Cuban culture displayed in its literature This study establishes similarities and differences in the way these authors create polyphonic texts that question whether notions of country and nation coincide in novels that respond to economic hardship political and social changes issues of Cuban and exile

The Literature of Catastrophe Carlos Fonseca, 2020-05-14 This book investigates how nature and history intertwined during the violent aftermath of the Latin American Wars of Independence Synthesizing intellectual history and readings of textual production The Literature of Catastrophe reimagines the emergence of the modern Latin American nation states beyond the scope of the harmonious foundational fictions that marked the emergence of the nation as an organic community Through a study of philosophical literary and artistic representations of three catastrophic figures earthquakes volcanoes and epidemics this book provides a critical model through which to refute these state sponsored happy narratives proposing instead that the emergence of the modern state in Latin America was indeed a violent event whose aftershocks are still felt today Engaging a variety of sources and protagonists from Simón Bolívar's manifestoes to César Aira's use of landscape in his novels from the revolutionary role mosquitoes had within the Haitian Revolution to the role AIDS played in the writing of Reinaldo Arenas posthumous novel Carlos Fonseca offers an original retelling of this foundational moment recounting how history has become a site where the modern division between nature and culture collapses S.E.L.A., 1997 Caras y caretas, 1909

Reinaldo Arenas Francisco Soto, 1998 Cuban writer Reinaldo Arenas 1943 1990 is considered to be one of Latin America's most innovative and provocative late twentieth century literary voices A prolific writer who overcame enormous persecution and censorship Arenas wrote novels short stories poetry theater pieces and essays Francisco Soto's Reinaldo Arenas is not only the first comprehensive review in English to examine and analyze the major works of Arenas but it is also the first to trace the articulation of homoerotic themes and issues in the Cuban writer's oeuvre BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Registro nacional de leyes, decretos y otros
