William Seaver Woods,2017-11-19 Excerpt from Colossal Blunders of the War A most gratifying feature of this investigation is the enthusiastic aid given by the Generals who commanded the American Armies in France No better proof of their patriotism could be afforded than their willing ness to lay bare the errors of 1917 18 in order to keep them from happening again in some future crisis In time of war all criticism is hushed When drums are beating and bugles blowing every act of anyone in authority is hailed as the best the wisest the greatest that could possibly be That time is now past and we can profitably scrutinize the imperfections of what we once thought so perfect in order to save at some future day the lives of gallant men the world can ill afford to lose About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works      Colossal Blunders of the War William

Seaver Woods,1930 It was on the battlefield of Verdun just after the war that author Woods was most deeply impressed by the evidences of horrific needless slaughter More than 700 000 men were killed or maimed there with no real gain for either side And this was but one of the many tragic blunders of the war A search through the records showed that during the conflict hundreds of thousands of men were sacrificed not for sound military reasons but because of one piece of stupidity after another In bringing forth these colossal blunders of America Germany the Allies and Russia Mr Woods is not presenting propaganda He is not urging militarism or armament He is simply pointing out how lack of intelligence was the cause of hideous loss of life Leading American generals and the War Department at Washington patriotically gave their assistance in laying bare our errors in order to prevent such disasters in the future The chapters devoted to other countries are founded on equally indisputable sources Book jacket      Colossal Blunders of the War William Seaver Woods,1931      Quarterly
