

When confrontational therapist Bill Cops (Bruce Willis, right) watches a patient plunge to her death, he is so traumatized by the suicide that he leaves New York and moves to Los Angeles to go into practice with his best friend, Dr. Bob Moore (Julianna Margulies). However, when Moore is stalked and brutally stabbed to death by a mysterious intruder, Cops suspects someone from his friend's Monday night therapy group and he takes over the sessions in an attempt to discover the killer's identity—before he becomes the next victim. Every patient becomes a viable suspect, and Cops risks his life to solve the crime and discover the murderer in the ultimate game of chess therapist cat and mouse. Jane March (left), Ruben Blades and Lesley Ann Warren also star. A Hollywood Pictures presentation, "Color of Night" is directed by Richard Rush from a screenplay by Matthew Chapman and Billy Ray and Richard Rush (Writing credit is not final.
