The New Russian Book Birgitte Beck Pristed, 2017-08-01 This book takes up the obtrusive problem of visual representation of fiction in contemporary Russian book design By analyzing a broad variety of book covers the study offers an absolutely unique material that illustrates a radically changing notion of literature in the transformation of Soviet print culture to a post Soviet book market It delivers a profound and critical exploration of Russian visual imaginary of classic popular and contemporary prose Among all the carelessly bungled covers of mass published post Soviet series the study identifies gems from experimental designers By taking a comparative approach to the clash of two formerly separate book cultures the Western and the Soviet that results both in a mixture of highbrow and lowbrow forms and in ideological re interpretations of the literary works this book contributes to opening an East West dialogue between the fields of Russian studies contemporary book and media history art design and visual studies

Philosophy for Passengers Michael Marder, 2022-05-03 A philosophical guide to passengerhood with reflections on time space existence boredom our sense of self and our sense of the senses While there are entire bookstore sections and even entire bookstores devoted to travel there have been few books on the universal experience of being a passenger With this book philosopher Michael Marder fills the gap offering a philosophical guide to passengerhood He takes readers from ticketing and preboarding preface and introduction through a series of stops and detours reflections on topics including time space existence boredom our sense of self and our sense of the senses to destination and disembarking conclusion Marder finds that the experience of passengers in the twenty first century is experience itself stretching well beyond railroad tracks and airplane flight patterns On his journey through passengerhood he considers among many other things passenger togetherness which goes hand in hand with passenger loneliness flyover country and the idea of placeness and Descartes in an airplane seat He tells us that the word metaphor means transport in Greek and discusses the gray area between literalness and metaphoricity explains the connection between reading and riding and ponders the difference between destination and destiny Finally a Beckettian disembarking you might not be able to disembark yet you must disembark After the voyage in the world ends the journey of understanding begins

Literature, History and Identity in Post-Soviet Russia, 1991-2006 Rosalind J. Marsh, 2007 The aim of this book is to explore some of the main preoccupations of literature culture and criticism dealing with historical themes in post Soviet Russia focusing mainly on literature in the years 1991 to 2006 introd

Cultural Capitalism Bradley A. Gorski, 2025-03-15 Cultural Capitalism explores Russia's eager embrace of capitalism in the post Soviet era When the Soviet Union fell books were suddenly bought and sold as commodities Russia's first bestseller lists brought attention and prestige Even literary prizes turned to the market for legitimacy The rise of capitalism entirely transformed both the economics and the aesthetics of Russian literature By reconstructing the market's influence on everything from late Soviet paper shortages to the prose of neoimperialism Cultural Capitalism reveals Russian literature's exuberant hopes for and deep disappointments in capitalism Only a free market it was hoped could cure endemic book deficits and liberate literature from ideological constraints But as the market came to dominate literature it imposed an ideology of its own one that directed literary development for decades Through archival research original interviews and provocative readings of literary texts Bradley A Gorski immerses the reader in both the economic and aesthetic worlds of post Soviet Russian literature to reveal a cultural logic dominated by capitalism The Russian 1990s and early 2000s saw markets introduced adopted and debated at an accelerated pace all against the backdrop of a socialist past staging the polemics between capitalism and culture in high drama and sharp relief But the market forces at the center of the post Soviet transition are fundamental to cultural trends worldwide By revealing the complexities of Russia's story Cultural Capitalism mounts a critique that cuts across national borders and provides a new way of seeing culture in the post 1989 era worldwide

The Visible and the Invisible in the Interplay between Philosophy, Literature and Reality Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, 2012-12-06 Merleau Ponty's categories of the visible and the invisible are investigated afresh and with originality in this penetrating collection of literary and philosophical inquiries Going beyond the traditional and current references to the mental and the sensory mind and body perceptual content and the abstract ideas conveyed in language etc these studies range from the hidden spheres of reality to the play of the visible and the invisible left as traces in works of human genius the origins of intellect and language the real and the imaginary in literature and the hidden realities in the philosophy of the everyday world These literary and philosophical probings collectively reveal the role of this disjoined conjoined pairing in the ontopoietic establishment of reality that is in the manifestation of the logos of life In tandem they bring to light the hidden play of the visible and the invisible in the emergence of our vital societal intimate intellectual and creative involvements Bookforum ,2001

Russian Writers Since 1980 Marina Balina, Mark Naumovich Lipovet[skii], 2004 Focuses on the highly diverse and controversial literary and cultural life in Russia during the last twenty years of the past century Major shifts on the political scene influenced Russian literature of these past two decades Literature managed to find in the political and historical turbulence of this period a source of powerful artistic insight Atmospheric and Oceanic Optics ,2004 Soviet Physics, Crystallography ,1982 Applied Language Learning ,2010 Inorganic Materials ,1969 Oceanology ,1993
