50th Anniversary Of The Multilateral Trading System:

50th Anniversary of the Multilateral Trading System World Trade Organization,1998 Recoge 1 Flavio Cotti 2 Renato Ruggiero 3 William J Clinton 4 Kjell Magne Bondevik 5 Ivan Kostov 6 Fidel Castro Ruiz 7 Jacques Santer 8 Fernando Henrique Cardoso 9 Nelson Mandela 10 Sidi Mohammed 11 Janez Drnovsek 12 Tony Blair 13 Daniel Kablan Duncan 14 Edison C James 15 Romano Prodi 16 Jean Chretien 17 Ryutaro Hashimoto 18 Gon Chok Tong International Trade Law on the 50th Anniversary of the Multilateral Trade System Paolo Mengozzi,1999 The Liberalization of Maritime Transport Services Benjamin Parameswaran,2012-12-06 Despite multiple efforts on the bilateral regional and multilateral level to create uniform or at least harmonized rules for commercial operations and practices in the maritime transport sector and to liberalize maritime transport services by tearing down the barriers that exist in that sector there is until today no global regime regulating or rather deregulating the supply of maritime transport services and ensuring open markets In this situation private economic actors are confronted with substantial legal uncertainty This book provides a detailed analysis of the history of maritime transport services in the Uruguay and post Uruguay Round negotiations and the role of the sector in the ongoing Doha Round talks where Member States have the opportunity to work towards a global regime ensuring the progressive liberalization of the sector The reader will be confronted with an extensive overview of the role of maritime transport services in the WTO GATS framework a topic basically uncovered in the literature so far The First Ten Years of the WTO Peter Gallagher,2005-12-15 Publisher Description The Italian Yearbook of International Law 1999 Benedetto Conforti,Luigi Ferrari Bravo,Giorgio Sacerdoti,Francesco Francioni,Natalino Ronzitti,2000-10-01 In a world where diversity and pluralism are indispensable values for the balanced progress of international law knowledge of the contribution that each State makes to the formation and development of international norms is increasingly important for both scholars and practitioners The Italian Yearbook of International Law aims at making accessible to the English speaking public the Italian contribution to the practice and literature of international law The Yearbook is organised into three main sections The first contains doctrinal contributions featuring articles on the European human rights system and its relation to customary international law on international control of bribery and mergers and on the problem of accountability for gross violations of human rights The second section covers the Italian practice in the areas of 1 judicial decisions including the important decisions in the Ocalan and Cermis cases 2 diplomatic and parliamentary practice 3 treaty practice and 4 national legislation Relevant materials are presented by way of introductory notes and concise legal analysis The third part of the volume contains a systematic bibliographical index of Italian literature in the field of international law The volume ends with an analytical index for ready consultation Handbook on International Trade Policy William Alexander Kerr,James D. Gaisford,2007 This book obtains its broad expertise by pulling together expertise from a wide range of experts in the way that each chapter is written by authors specialized in the topic addressed This Handbook on international trade policy is a good summary of theories policy instruments and their effects and is written in an understandable manner Most parts are suited for students and those who want to start understanding international trade policy It is also useful for researchers policy makers and practitioners looking for quick guidance on different topics in international trade policy The clear structure of the book organized by topics allows for a quick and easy reference Martin Grass Quarterly Journal of International Agriculture The Handbook on International Trade Policy is an insightful and comprehensive reference tool focusing on trade policy issues in the era of globalization Each specially commissioned chapter deals with important international trade issues discusses the current literature on the subject and explores major controversies The Handbook also directs the interested reader to further sources of information The expert contributors cover both traditional and more current concerns including history of thought on trade policy the development of multilateral organizations such as the World Trade Organization border restrictions and subsidies regional trade agreements trade and the environment animal plant and food safety measures international protection of intellectual property and sanctions Presenting a broad and state of the art perspective on the topic this highly accessible Handbook will prove an invaluable resource to researchers academics policymakers and practitioners concerned with international trade policy

Foreign Policy in Post-Apartheid South Africa Adekeye Adebajo, Kudrat Virk, 2017-12-18 South Africa is the most industrialized power in Africa It was rated the continent's largest economy in 2016 and is the only African member of the G20 It is also the only strategic partner of the EU in Africa Yet despite being so strategically and economically significant there is little scholarship that focuses on South Africa as a regional hegemon This book provides the first comprehensive assessment of South Africa's post Apartheid foreign policy Over its 23 chapters and with contributions from established Africa Western Asian and American scholars as well as diplomats and analysts the book examines the current pattern of the country's foreign relations in impressive detail The geographic and thematic coverage is extensive including chapters on the domestic imperatives of South Africa's foreign policy peace making defence and security bilateral relations in Southern Central West Eastern and North Africa bilateral relations with the US China Britain France and Japan the country's key external multilateral relations with the UN the BRICS economic grouping the African Caribbean and Pacific Group ACP as well as the EU and the World Trade Organization WTO An essential resource for researchers the book will be relevant to the fields of area studies foreign policy history international relations international law security studies political economy and development studies
