The Seven Lively Arts Gilbert Vivian Seldes, 1957      The Seven Lively Arts Gilbert Seldes, 2023-11-21 In The Seven Lively Arts Gilbert Seldes crafts a compelling narrative that explores the significance of popular culture and entertainment in early 20th century America. Written with a mix of critical analysis and accessible prose, Seldes examines the interplay between fine art and mass media, delving into performance, film, music, and more. His acute observations are interspersed with personal anecdotes and cultural critique, situating his work within the broader context of the American arts scene during a period of rapid change and modernization. Seldes effectively nuances the relationship between artistic merit and commercial success, thus challenging preconceived hierarchies in art appreciation. Gilbert Seldes was a pivotal figure in American cultural criticism, serving as both a writer and a public intellectual dedicated to elevating popular discourse around the arts. The Tenth Muse Laura Marcus,2010-08-12 The Tenth Muse explores writings on the cinema in the first decades of the twentieth century Laura Marcus examines the impact of cinema on early twentieth century literary and more broadly aesthetic and cultural consciousness by bringing together the study of the terms and strategies of early writings about film with literary engagement with cinema in the same period She gives a new understanding of the ways in which early writers about film reviewers critics theorists developed aesthetic categories to define and accommodate what was called the seventh art or the tenth muse and found discursive strategies adequate to the representation of the new art and technology of cinema with its unprecedented powers of movement In examining the writings of early film critics and commentators in tandem with those of more specifically literary figures including H G Wells and Virginia Woolf and in bringing literary texts into this field Laura Marcus provides a new account of relationships between cinema and literature Intertwining two major strands of research the exploration of early film criticism and theory and cinema s presence in literary texts The Tenth Muse shows how issues central to an understanding of cinema including questions of time repetition movement vision sound and silence are threaded through both kinds of writing and the ways in which discursive and fictional writings overlapped The movement that defined cinema was also perceived as a more fragile and unstable ephemerality that inhered at every level from the fleeting nature of the projected images to the vagaries of cinematic exhibition It was the anxiety over the mutability of the medium and its exhibition which from the 1920s onwards led to the establishment of such institutional spaces for cinema as the London based Film Society the new film journals and in the 1930s the first film archives The Tenth Muse explores the continuities between these sites of cinematic culture and the conceptual literary and philosophical understandings of the filmic medium
