Labour Law in Cyprus Christina Ioannou, Achilles C. Emilianides, 2019-03-26 Derived from the renowned multi-volume International Encyclopaedia of Laws, this monograph on Cyprus not only describes and analyses the legal aspects of labour relations but also examines labour relations practices and developing trends. It provides a survey of the subject that is both usefully brief and sufficiently detailed to answer most questions likely to arise in any pertinent legal setting. Both individual and collective labour relations are covered in ample detail with attention to such underlying and pervasive factors as employment contracts, suspension of the contracts, dismissal laws, and covenant of non-competition, as well as international private law. The author describes all important details of the law governing hours and wages, benefits, intellectual property implications, trade union activity, employers' associations, workers' participation, collective bargaining, industrial disputes, and much more. Building on a clear overview of labour law and labour relations, the book offers practical guidance on which sound preliminary decisions may be based. It will find a ready readership among lawyers representing parties with interests in Cyprus, and academics and researchers will appreciate its value in the study of comparative trends in laws affecting labour and labour relations. American Economist, 1900 Justice of the Peace, 1921 American Economist and Tariff League Bulletin, 1900 The Justice of the Peace Reports, 1921 British Medical Journal, 1902 Southern Reporter, 1924 Includes the decisions of the Supreme Courts of Alabama, Florida, Louisiana, and Mississippi, the Appellate Courts of Alabama, and Sept 1928, Jan 1929, Jan-Mar 1941, the Courts of Appeal of Louisiana.
