Bonds Of Affection:

1955, Bonds of Affection John Bodnar, 2020-10-06 During the Civil War Walt Whitman described his admiration for the Union soldiers loyalty to the ideal of democracy His argument that this faith bonded Americans to their nation has received little critical attention yet today it raises increasingly relevant questions about American patriotism in the face of growing nationalist sentiment worldwide Here a group of scholars explores the manner in which Americans have discussed and practiced their patriotism over the past two hundred years Their essays investigate for example the extent to which the promise of democracy has explained citizen loyalty what other factors such as devotion to home and family have influenced patriotism and how patriotism has often served as a tool to maintain the power of a dominant group and to obscure internal social ills This volume examines the use of patriotic language and symbols in building unity in the early republic rebuilding the nation after the Civil War and sustaining loyalty in an increasingly diverse society Continuing through the World Wars to the Clinton presidency the essay topics range from multiculturalism to reactions toward masculine power In addition to the editor the contributors include Cynthia M Koch Cecilia Elizabeth O Leary Andrew Neather Stuart McConnell Gaines M Foster Kimberly Jensen David Glassberg and J Michael Moore Lawrence R Samuel Robert B Westbrook Wendy Kozol George Lipsitz Barbara Truesdell Robin Wagner Pacifici and William B Cohen The Mothers Robert Briffault, 1927 The Survey, 1928 Bonds of Affection Henry David Thoreau, 2005 How many a man has dated a new era in his life from the reading of a book wrote Henry David Thoreau in Walden Today that book continues to provoke inspire and change lives all over the world and each rereading is fresh and challenging Yet as Thoreau s countless admirers know there is more to the man than Walden An engineer poet teacher naturalist lecturer and political activist he truly had multiple lives to lead and each one speaks forcefully to us today Sponsored by the Thoreau Society the brief handsomely presented books in this series offer the thoughts of a great writer on a variety of topics some that we readily associate with him some that may be surprising Each volume includes selections from his familiar published works as well as from less well known lectures letters and journal entries The books include original engravings by renowned illustrator and book artist Barry Moser Children, 1927 Bonds of Affection Matthew S. Holland, 2007-10-04 Notions of Christian love or charity strongly shaped the political thought of John Winthrop Thomas Jefferson and Abraham Lincoln as each presided over a foundational moment in the development of American democracy Matthew Holland examines how each figure interpreted and appropriated charity revealing both the problems and possibilities of making it a political ideal Holland first looks at early American literature and seminal speeches by Winthrop to show how the Puritan theology of this famed 17th century governor of the Massachusetts Colony he who first envisioned America as a City upon a Hill galvanized an impressive sense of self rule and a community of care in the early republic even as its harsher aspects made something like Jefferson s Enlightenment faith in liberal democracy a welcome development Holland then shows that between Jefferson s early rough draft of the Declaration of Independence and his First Inaugural Jefferson came to see some notion of charity as a necessary complement to modern political liberty However Holland argues it was Lincoln and his ingenious blend of Puritan and democratic insights who best fulfilled the promise of this nation s bonds of affection With his recognition of the imperfections of both North and South his humility in the face of God s judgment on the Civil War and his insistence on charity for all including the defeated Confederacy Lincoln personified the possibilities of religious love turned civic virtue Weaving a rich tapestry of insights from political science and literature and American religious history and political theory Bonds of Affection is a major contribution to the study of American political identity Matthew Holland makes plain that civic charity while commonly rejected as irrelevant or even harmful to political engagement has been integral to our national character The book includes the full texts of Winthrop s speech A Model of Christian Charity Jefferson s rough draft of the Declaration and his First Inaugural and Lincoln s Second Inaugural Family Life To-day Margaret Elden Rich, Margaret E. Rich, 1928

The development of the high-school curriculum American Association of School Administrators, 1928 Rosmini's Suspended Middle Fernando Bellelli, 2024-01-10 Antonio Rosmini 1797 1855 was a genius who combined science and sanctity His contribution turns on the theory of the suspended middle of the original relationship between the natural and the supernatural which he experienced and elaborated The device of the relationship between the original metaphysical affective symbolic structure of the believing conscience and the affective turn in metaphysics intrinsically linked to his trinitarian ontology allowed Rosmini to elaborate theories and epistemologies from a unitary perspective in various fields of knowledge This volume indicates the implications of the unbreakable bond between Rosmini s philosophy and theology in disciplines such as pedagogical science political science and juridical science Following the favorable resolution of the Rosminian question the Catholic Church beatified Rosmini in 2007 and in 2018 indicated his theoretical practical approach as a universal education model to be followed Through essays by major experts in Rosmini s thought this curatorship offers an international public a brief reasoned overview of Rosmini s thinking on these disciplines finally translated into English so that this perspective can be understood and explored with particular regard to the possibility of encouraging ecumenical comparison between Rosmini s suspended middle and for example that of Radical Orthodoxy Encyclopedia of the New American Nation Paul Finkelman, 2006 Presents a three volume encyclopedia of the history of the new American nation and contains over six hundred alphabetically arranged articles covering major events and issues from 1754 to 1829 ... An Introductory Study of the Family Edgar Schmiedeler, 1930 Swedenborg's Works Emanuel Swedenborg, 1907

Arcana Coelestia Emanuel Swedenborg, 1881 Poetry and Paternity in Renaissance England Tom MacFaul, 2010-06-17 Becoming a father was the main way that an individual in the English Renaissance could be treated as a full member of the community Yet patriarchal identity was by no means as secure as is often assumed when poets invoke the idea of paternity in love poetry and other forms they are therefore invoking all the anxieties that a culture with contradictory notions of sexuality imposed This study takes these anxieties seriously arguing that writers such as Sidney and Spenser deployed images of childbirth to harmonize public and private spheres to develop a full sense of selfhood in their verse and even to come to new accommodations between the sexes Shakespeare Donne and Jonson in turn saw the appeal of the older poets aims but resisted their more radical implications The result is a fiercely personal yet publicly committed poetry that wouldn't be seen again until the time of the Romantics

The Fraternity at 150, 1976      Children, the Magazine for Parents, 1927      Brave Church Elizabeth Hagan, 2021-06-01 In today's deeply divided world where discussions can quickly become heated and uncivil churches need to learn how to talk about sensitive issues Our society needs brave churches where people can talk about the real struggles they are experiencing without fear of being dismissed shamed or judged Brave Church helps congregations talk about controversial topics with sensitivity to those who see the world and have experienced life differently from themselves It guides readers to think through how they can foster conversations about such challenging topics as infertility miscarriage mental health domestic violence racism and sexuality In this 6 week small group study pastor Elizabeth Hagan weaves personal and theological reflections with scripture discussion questions and real world examples to move readers from exploration to action Brave Church includes a Leader's Guide and suggests resources for further reading and action
