Latin Poetry in the Ancient Greek Novels Daniel Jolowicz, 2021-04-15 Latin Poetry in the Ancient Greek Novels establishes and explores connections between Greek imperial literature and Latin poetry This work challenges conventional thinking about literary and cultural interaction of the period which assumes that imperial Greeks were not much interested in Roman cultural products especially literature Instead it argues that Latin poetry is a crucially important frame of reference for Greek imperial literature This has significant ramifications bearing on the question of bilingual allusion and intertextuality as well as on that of cultural interaction during the imperial period more generally Three of these novels in particular Chariton's Chaereas and Callirhoe Achilles Tatius Clitophon and Leucippe and Longus Daphnis and Chloe are analysed for the extent to which they allude to Latin poetry and for the effects literary and ideological of such allusion After establishing the cultural context and parameters of the study each chapter pursues the strategies of an individual novelist in connection with Latin poetry The work offers the first book length study of the role of Latin literature in Greek literary culture under the empire and thus provides fresh perspectives and new approaches to the literature and culture of this period

Sex and the Failed Absolute Slavoj Žižek, 2019-09-19 In the most rigorous articulation of his philosophical system to date Slavoj Žižek provides nothing short of a new definition of dialectical materialism In forging this new materialism Žižek critiques and challenges not only the work of Alain Badiou Robert Brandom Joan Copjec Quentin Meillassoux and Julia Kristeva to name but a few but everything from popular science and quantum mechanics to sexual difference and analytic philosophy Alongside striking images of the Mibus strip the cross cap and the Klein bottle Žižek brings alive the Hegelian triad of being essence notion Radical new readings of Hegel and Kant sit side by side with characteristically lively commentaries on film politics and culture Here is Žižek at his interrogative best

Plato's Politics of Passion Alan Pichanick, 2025-10-01 An original reading of three Platonic dialogues concerned with the soul tyranny self knowledge and the beautiful Guided by the question What is Socratic self knowledge this study begins with Plato's Charmides because it is within this work more than any other that the utility of self knowledge becomes the predominant theme In this dialogue Socrates explores the possibility of the very culmination of his philosophical investigations knowledge of ignorance This happens through an investigation of the perplexing concept s phrosun Alan Pichanick s approach offers a new perspective upon the perplexing exploration of s phrosun in the Charmides by placing much greater emphasis on the neglected erotic setting in the dramatic introduction and argues that our reading of the rest of the dialogue should be done in light of this dramatic setting The erotic setting of the Charmides combined with the discussion of philosophical wonder in the Symposium and tyrannical er s in the Republic gives guidance about how to think about the potential connection between Socratic self knowledge and knowledge of the good and also shows why the characters of Charmides and Critias fail to come to such knowledge Here we have the Platonic diagnosis of the tyrant whose soul never wonders at anything beyond itself
