R. Ward, 2008 The Grove Encyclopedia of Materials and Techniques deals with all aspects of materials techniques conservation and restoration in both traditional and nontraditional media including ceramics sculpture metalwork painting works on paper textiles video digital art and more Drawing upon the expansive scholarship in The Dictionary of Art and adding new entries this work is a comprehensive reference resource for artists art dealers collectors curators conservators students researchers and scholars Similar in design to The Grove Encyclopedia of Decorative Arts this one volume reference work contains articles of various lengths in alphabetical order The shorter more factual articles are combined with larger multi section articles tracing the development of materials and techniques in various geographical locations The Encyclopedia provides unparalleled scope and depth and it offers fully updated articles and bibliography as well as over 150 illustrations and color plates The Grove Encyclopedia of Materials and Techniques offers scholarly information on materials and techniques in art for anyone who studies creates collects or deals in works of art The entries are written to be accessible to a wide range of readers and the work is designed as a reliable and convenient resource covering this essential area in the visual arts     Fine Bookbinding Jen Lindsay, 2009 The purpose of this book is to guide the reader through the sequence of operations involved in creating a book bound in leather or a fine binding The author defines a fine binding as a book fully covered in leather with leather jointed endpapers gilt edges and leather doublures Although a basic knowledge of bookbinding terms and techniques is assumed this book is meant for both novice and experienced bookmakers The book is intended to be used as an active guide during the process of fine binding It is arranged into sixteen sections listing the sequence of operations beginning with preliminary work and ending with preparing and putting in leather doublures Each section includes appropriately numbered instructions allowing the user to find his or her place in the sequence of operations with a reference for what step is next There are also numbered explanatory sections that include a rationale why you do it and technique how you do it The work includes close to 300 black and white illustrations four appendices and a bibliography     Dutch Decorated Bookbinding in the Eighteenth Century Jan Storm van Leeuwen,2006 Awarded with the 15th ILAB Breslauer Prize for Bibliography 2010 This classic can be ranked among the well known international standard works on the subject of bookbinding The author Dr Jan Storm van Leeuwen gives in this work an elaborate general historical introduction to his subject It also contains a general introduction to each province as they were known in the eighteenth century and an extensive overall picture of the towns where luxury bindings were manufactured describing the bookbinder s workshops and binderies of each town The historical introduction is completed with a catalogue of the approximately 2000 relevant bindings in the collections of the Koninklijke Bibliotheek National Library of the Netherlands and its sister institution the Museum Meermanno Westreenianum About 1500 other bindings that the author studied over time in other collections are also described But the most important feature of this work is that all nearly 10 000 stamps on these bindings are represented by a picture Never before so many bindings 3500 have been recorded described and discussed in such detail and with the benefit of an established model and terminology Vol I General historical introduction Noord Holland Vol IIa Zuid Holland Vol IIb Zeeland Province of Utrecht Friesland Province of Groningen Drente Overijssel Gelderland Noord Brabant and Limburg Place unknown or irrelevant and Bindings in exceptional materials Vol III Catalogue of bindings in the Koninklijke Bibliotheek and the Museum Meermanno Westreenianum List of Bindings in other collections Overview of Rubbings important for identification Diagrams Books referred to with abbreviated titles Index to the text Index to Catalogue and List American Signed Bindings Through 1876 Willman Spawn,Thomas E. Kinsella,2007 Describes and illustrates 315 bookbinder s tickets stamps and engraved designations from the 1750s through 1876 Identifies 233 binders from 19 states and 84 cities and towns from Maine to New Orleans and as far west as Little Rock Provides brief descriptions of bindings and explanatory notes for many binders Provided by publisher Directories in Print 28 V3 Supplement ,2008-05 Directories in Print ,2011 The Eighteenth Century ,2002 The Eighteenth Century American Society for Eighteenth-Century Studies,Jim Springer Borck,2006-12 This 17th volume from the series of bibliographies of the 18th century is divided into sections on printing and bibliographic studies historical social and economic studies philosophy science and religion the fine arts literary studies and individual authors Eloquent Witnesses Mirjam Foot,Bibliographical Society (Great Britain),2004 This collection of essays edited and in many cases expanded versions of lectures delivered over a dozen years demonstrates the change in direction the study of bookbinding history has taken Much of the work published here is based on minute observation of details of structure techniques and materials as well as on close study of decorative tools and the ways in which these were used to achieve the many splendid designs that reflect the styles and fashions of their day Book Jacket George III & Queen Charlotte Jane Roberts,2004 The madness of George III is the one fact about the King that everybody knows Some might also say that George III lost the American colonies Few would be able to add that George III founded the Royal Academy of Arts that he was a patron of Samuel Johnson and the astronomer William Herschel and a king who gloried in the name of Briton Among his contemporaries George III was noted as an outstanding bibliophile and a renowned connoisseur of music science painting and architecture Published to coincide with the major exhibition at The Queen s Gallery Buckingham Palace George III Queen Charlotte patronage collecting and court taste reconsiders the role of George III Queen Charlotte and their family in encouraging the arts within the court and in society as a whole during the 50 years of the King s reign Illustrated by a superb range of works of art in the Royal Collection the book reveals aspects of George III as father monarch and man of letters that have generally been overlooked and demonstrates his true importance as one of the most wide ranging influential and far sighted collectors of his day It is an important contribution to studies of the fine and decorative arts in the Georgian period and will be an essential source of referene for both academics and collectors Book jacket The Book Collector ,2002 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2003
