

The Girl I Left Behind Me

Words 18 century
 Music anon.

The words of this song can be traced back to the mid-18th century. Around 1759 there were many encampments along the south coast of England anticipating French invasion. The tune, which is anonymous, is sometimes known as Brighton Camp. It is still played by the British Army on occasions of departure.

Firmly, with movement

The musical score is presented in a piano-vocal format. It begins with a piano introduction in G major, 4/4 time, marked 'Firmly, with movement'. The introduction consists of five measures. The first system includes a capo instruction: '(Capo on 3rd fret):' followed by guitar chords G, A, D, G, E7, and A. The vocal line starts in the second measure with the lyrics 'I, I'm... lone-some since I crossed the hill, And o'er the moor and val - ley, Such'. The piano accompaniment continues with chords G, A, D, G, Bb (D), A, and D. The second system of the vocal line has lyrics 'hea - vy... thoughts my heart do fill, Since part - ing with my Sal - ly, I'. The piano accompaniment has chords G, A, D, G, A, A7, and D. The third system of the vocal line has lyrics 'seek no more the fine or gay, For... each does but re - mind me How'. The piano accompaniment has chords A, D, G, E7, and A. The score is written for a grand piano with treble and bass staves, and a vocal line with lyrics underneath.
