Women Readers and Writers in Medieval Iberia Montserrat Piera, 2019-08-05 This book is devoted to medieval Iberian women readers and writers Focusing on the stories and texts women heard visually experienced or read and the stories that they rewrote the work explores women's experiences and cultural practices and their efforts to make sense of their place within their familial networks and communities The study is based on two methodological and interpretive threads a new paradigm to represent premodern reading and a study of women's writing or more precisely women's textualities as a process of creating words but also acts social practices emotions and ultimately affectus understood here as the embodiment of the ability to affect and be affected

Women and Monastic Reform in the Medieval West, C. 1000-1500 Julie Hotchin, Jirki Thibaut, 2023 New approaches to understanding religious women's involvement in monastic reform demonstrating how women's experiences were more ambiguous and multi-layered than previously assumed Over the last two decades scholarship has presented a more nuanced view of women's attitude to and agency in medieval monastic reform challenging the idea that they were by and large unwilling to accept or were necessarily hostile towards reform initiatives Rather it has shown that they actively participated in debates about the ideas and structures that shaped their religious lives whether rejecting embracing or adapting to calls for reform contingent on their circumstances Nevertheless fundamental questions regarding the gendered nature of religious reform are ripe for further examination This book brings together innovative research from a range of disciplines to re-evaluate and enlarge our knowledge of women's involvement in spiritual and institutional change in female monastic communities over the period c 1000 c 1500 Contributors revise conventional narratives about women and monastic reform and earlier assumptions of reform as negative or irrelevant for women Drawing on a diverse array of visual material and textual sources it presents snapshots of reform from western Europe stretching from Ireland to Iberia Case studies focussing on a number of different topics from tenth century female saints lives to fifteenth century liturgical books from the tenth century Leominster prayerbook to archaeological remains in Ireland from embroideries and tapestries to the rebellious nuns of Sainte Croix in Poitiers offer a critical reappraisal of how monastic women and their male associates reflected individually and collectively on their spiritual ideals and institutional forms
