Asian Cinemas Gary Needham,Dimitris Eleftheriotis,2019-07-29 Asian cinema is an area of increasing interest in Anglo US film studies while Asian films are now widely distributed and popular with western audiences The fascination with Asian cinema must be examined in the context of a complex and often problematic relationship between western scholars students viewers and Asian films This book therefore examines a number of detailed case studies such as the films of Ozu Bruce Lee Hong Kong and Turkish cinema Hindi melodramas Godzilla films Taiwanese directors and Fifth Generation Chinese cinema and uses them in order to investigate the limitations of Anglo US theoretical models and critical paradigms By engaging the readers with familiar areas of critical discourse such as postcolonial criticism national cinema genre authorship and stardom the book aims to introduce within such contexts the unfamiliar case studies which will be explored in depth and detail The advantage of such an approach is that it works with the dynamics of familiarity unfamiliarity and resists the temptation to construct Asian cinemas as a gallery of exotic objects that might be particularly fascinating but remain deeply distant and foreign Features A comprehensive study of Asian cinemas including Hong Kong Japan China India Turkey and Taiwan An accessible guide for the study and research of Asian cinema which addresses undergraduate and postgraduate students and researchers Each section contains a contextualising introduction Includes key texts by Ackbar Abbas Rey Chow David Desser Dimitris Eleftheriotis Nezhir Erdo

Exploiting East Asian Cinemas Ken Provencher, Mike Dillon,2018-01-11 From the 1970s onward exploitation cinema as a concept has circulated inside and outside of East Asian nations and cultures in terms of aesthetics and marketing However crucial questions about how global networks of production and circulation alter the identity of an East Asian film as mainstream or as exploitation have yet to be addressed in a comprehensive way Exploiting East Asian Cinemas serves as the first authoritative guide to the various ways in which contemporary cinema from and about East Asia has trafficked across the somewhat elusive line between mainstream and exploitation Focusing on networks of circulation distribution and reception this collection treats the exploitation cinemas of East Asia as mobile texts produced consumed and in many ways re appropriated across national and hemispheric boundaries As the processes of globalization have decoupled products from their nations of origin transnational taste cultures have declared certain works as art or trash regardless of how those works are received within their native locales By charting the routes of circulation of notable films from Japan China and South Korea this anthology contributes to transnationally accepted formulations of what constitutes East Asian exploitation cinema

Dasgupta,Yanling Yang,2021-11-29 This edited volume focuses on South and East Asian cinema exploring transnational connections between these film industries from the point of view of narratives topics and themes as well as in terms of co productions At a time of resurgent nationalisms and increasing fortifications of actual and symbolic borders the chapters in this book explore cinematic work that challenge these boundaries and promote a reflection on the social cultural political and economic value of international exchanges and collaborations within the context of Asia Indeed notwithstanding the aforementioned tendency to implement border policing and the revival of nationalist sentiments South and East Asian cinemas retain a strong transnational character as not only genres and themes are borrowed and exchanged across borders but also the popularity of the Indian Chinese and Korean film industries extend well beyond their national borders within Asia as well as in the West The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Transnational Screens
