Community A Trinity Of Models:

God Joseph A. Bracken, 2008 Drawing on the wisdom and teaching experience of highly respected theologians the Engaging Theology series builds a firm foundation for graduate study and other ministry formation programs Each of the volumes Scripture Jesus God Anthropology and Church is concerned with retrieving carefully evaluating and constructively interpreting the Christian tradition Comprehensive in scope and accessibly written these volumes used together or independently will stimulate rich theological reflection and discussion More important the series will create and sustain the passion of the next generation of theologians and church leaders The word God said Martin Buber decades ago is the most heavy laden of all human words None has become so soiled so mutilated Twenty first century discourse and action often perpetuate that lack of reverence In this volume Joseph Bracken shows us a better way He begins with Christianity s roots in Judaism and the inherent struggle to explain the reality of three persons in God who is one He allows readers to engage in the lively and fruitful trinitarian debates of the early church and discover how the classical doctrine of the Trinity has shaped the church through the centuries He offers a solid theological treatment of the history of the doctrine of God and its relevance for Christians today for dialogue between Christian men and women between Christianity and other religions and between religion and science Systematic theology at its best God Three Who Are One helps us find unexpected unity and consensus in a world full of troubling differences Along the way Bracken urges us to pray as well as think and to let rational reflection lead to praise and worship thereby giving the doctrine of the Trinity its due reverence and care Community
