Community at Loose Ends Miami Theory Collective (Oxford, Ohio), The Disavowed Community Jean-Luc Nancy, 2016-09-01 Over thirty years after Maurice Blanchot writes The Unavowable Community 1983 a book that offered a critical response to an early essay by Jean Luc Nancy on the inoperative community Nancy responds in turn with The Disavowed Community Stemming from Jean Christophe Bailly's initial proposal to think community in terms of number or the numerous and unfolding as a close reading of Blanchot's text Nancy's new book addresses a range of themes and motifs that mark both his proximity to and distance from Blanchot's thinking from Bataille's community of lovers to the relation between community communitarianism and being in common to Marguerite Duras to the Eucharist A key rethinking of politics and the political this exchange opens up a new understanding of community played out as a question of avowal Community in Twentieth-Century Fiction P. Salvan, G. Salas, J. Heffernan, 2016-01-19 This book focuses on the imaginary construction and deconstruction of human communities in modern and contemporary fiction Drawing on recent theoretical debate on the notion of community Nancy Blanchot Badiou Esposito this collection examines narratives by Joyce Mansfield Davies Naipaul DeLillo Atwood and others American Exposures Louis Kaplan, 2005 American Exposures sheds light on photographs from Arthur Mole's propagandistic living photographs of American icons and symbols to the exploration of contemporary subcultural communities by the Korean born photographer and performance artist Nikki Lee and asserts that the depiction of community is a central component to photography Louis Kaplan deploys a number of critical concepts and theories developed by Jean Luc Nancy in The Inoperative Community as well as other philosophers and applies them to the field of photography studies With an original approach to photography from Edward Steichen's Family of Man exhibition to Pedro Meyer and the rise of the digital image Kaplan points to a new way to think about the intimate relationship among photography American life and the artistic imagination Back cover Nomad Citizenship Eugene W. Holland, Exposes social and labor contracts as masks for foundational and ongoing global violence Having Jesus for Dinner: Community or Cannibalism Christopher Levan, 2023-05-09 Most Christians claim to know to Jesus as a friend or guide as an inspiration and model We adore him and even worship him But what happens when you have him for dinner This book explores the development of the meal practice of Jesus's followers as they move from having Jesus as the guest at their table to having Jesus as the main course Most believers don't give it a second thought now but that is a dramatic change Initially Jesus is the host at a common shared meal that signaled acceptance to all In a few short years Christians began eating Jesus as an act of devotion Jesus the bread of life Jesus the true vine How did this the shift from community to cannibalism take place Does it make sense relative to Jesus's stated mission And what have been the consequences of taking what began as ordinary shared supper and turning it into a symbolic and ritualized sacrament Join Christopher Levan as we go from bread recipes to first century meal practice We'll recline with other disciples and relive the joys of having Jesus as the host and ask if we can reset the table of the Lord for the
