As For The Future:

Rediscovery of Landraces as a Resource for the Future Oscar Grillo, 2018-09-12 In recent years all over the world the attention paid to local and traditional productions is growing especially in the agro food sector Maybe it is not only due to the impact of globalization and the social and economic changes but also due to the increased consideration to health and nutritional aspects of food Hence for economic social historical and nutritional reasons this trend has led to the rediscovery and reuse of landraces of many different crops responding to requests for more and more demanding market This volume collects examples of local crops and old landraces of different areas of the planet that testify the extreme importance of the relation existing among a land the local productions the historical traditions the conservation of biodiversity the health benefits the environmental impact and the local economies also including the significance to dedicate resources to scientific researches in local crops

Higher Education as a Bridge to the Future Jason A. Scorza, 2016-10-07 This volume assembles the papers presentations and speeches from the 50th Anniversary Meeting of the International Association of University Presidents IAUP held in Oxfordshire in 2015 This book is a companion volume to the proceedings of the 1965 inaugural meeting of IAUP also published by Fairleigh Dickinson University Press The highlight of the 50th Anniversary Meeting was an academic conference at Oxford University on the theme of Higher Education in 2065 Participants were called upon to look ahead to the next fifty years of global higher education drawing from their academic fields as well as their leadership experience within and beyond higher education The resulting collection includes discussions of current trends that will impact the future of universities as well as discussions of specific challenges likely to face higher education institutions both generally and in particular regions Some contributors outline steps that higher education institutions and or policymakers should adopt today to prepare for those challenges while others imagine the university of the future Edited by IAUP secretary general emeritus Jason Scorza this book is dedicated to the memory of J Michael Adams who served both as president of Fairleigh Dickinson University and president of IAUP and includes some of his final writings on the topic of the future of global higher education Founded in 1965 IAUP is the world s largest association of university chief executives from higher education institutions Membership is limited to individuals who serve or have served as presidents rectors or vice chancellors at accredited colleges or universities

The Future as Catastrophe Eva Horn, 2018-09-18 Why do we have the constant feeling that disaster is looming Beyond the images of atomic apocalypse that have haunted us for decades we are dazzled now by an array of possible catastrophe scenarios climate change financial crises environmental disasters technological meltdowns perennial subjects of literature film popular culture and political debate Is this preoccupation with catastrophe questionable alarmism or complacent passivity Or are there certain truths that can be revealed only in apocalypse In The Future as Catastrophe Eva Horn offers a novel critique of the modern fascination with disaster which she treats as a symptom of our relationship to the future Analyzing the catastrophic imaginary from its cultural and historical roots in

Romanticism and the figure of the Last Man through the narratives of climatic cataclysm and the Cold War's apocalyptic sublime to the contemporary popularity of disaster fiction and end of the world blockbusters Horn argues that apocalypse always haunts the modern idea of a future that can be anticipated and planned Considering works by Lord Byron J G Ballard and Cormac McCarthy and films such as 12 Monkeys and Minority Report alongside scientific scenarios and political metaphors she analyzes catastrophic thought experiments and the question of survival the choices legitimized by imagined states of exception and the contradictions inherent in preventative measures taken in the name of technical safety or political security What makes today's obsession different from previous epochs is the sense of a catastrophe without event a stealthily creeping process of disintegration Ultimately Horn argues imagined catastrophes offer us intellectual tools that can render a future shadowed with apocalyptic possibilities affectively epistemologically and politically accessible

Agribusiness as the Future of Agriculture Youssef M. Hamada, 2020-09-24 This informative book reviews the challenges of agribusiness in the Southeast Mediterranean The author focuses on sugarcane cultivation in Egypt to illustrate the impact of climate change on agribusiness and his method and findings may be helpful for other studies in other regions as well As climate change creates new risks to human populations and food security a better analysis is needed to understand this new level of uncertainty and to understand how it will impact agriculture and its relationship with economies livelihoods and development Africa emits low greenhouse gases but is hit the hardest by global warming posing a serious challenge to increasing agricultural productivity in the Southeast Mediterranean Sugarcane in Egypt is used as a local food source for international trade for the balance of payments for land and water use and as a basic product for food and fiber manufacturing Hence every aspect of the economic structure of Egypt relates to agriculture The book examines the causes and effects of climate change on agribusiness in the Southeast Mediterranean region such as its effect on prosperity and net farm incomes crop yields It considers how to promote agribusiness development in the area and the potential to alleviate poverty in rural areas It looks at the future of the sugarcane industry in Upper Egypt as a case study of agribusiness with implications that can be applied globally
