Cyber-bridges Between the United States and Mexico Felicity Schaeffer-Grabiel,2003 The Political Economy of Global Warming Del Weston,2014-04-11 Humanity is facing an unprecedented global catastrophe as a result of global warming This book examines the reasons why international agencies together with national governments are seemingly unable to provide real and binding solutions to the problems The reasons presented relate to the existing dominant global economic structure of capitalism as well as the fact that global warming is too often seen as an isolated problem rather than one of a suite of exceptional converging and accelerating crises arising from the global capitalist political economy This book adopts a political economy framework to address these issues It accepts the science of global warming but challenges the predominant politics and economics of global warming To illustrate the key issues involved the book draws on South Africa building on Samir Amin s thesis that the country represents a microcosm of the global political economy By taking a political economy approach the book provides a clear explanation of the deep and pervasive problem of the denial which fails to acknowledge global warming as a systemic rather than a market problem The book should be of interest to students and scholars researching climate change environmental politics environmental and ecological economics development studies and political economics

Robinson, 2006-12-12 How has the collapse of communism across Europe and Eurasia changed gender In addition to acknowledging the huge costs that fell heavily on women Living Gender after Communism suggests that moving away from communism in Europe and Eurasia has provided an opportunity for gender to multiply from varieties of neo traditionalism to feminisms from overt negotiation of femininity to denials of gender This development in turn has enabled some women in the region to construct their own gendered identities for their own political economic or social purposes Beginning with an understanding of gender as both a society wide institution that regulates people s lives and a cultural toolkit which individuals and groups may use to subvert or transvalue the sex gender system the contributors to this volume provide detailed case studies from Belarus Bosnia the Czech Republic Poland Romania Russia and Ukraine This collaboration between young scholars most from postcommunist states and experts in the fields of gender studies and postcommunism combines intimate knowledge of the area with sophisticated gender analysis to examine just how much gender realities have shifted in the region Contributors are Anna Brzozowska Karen Dawisha Nanette Funk Ewa Grigar Azra Hromadzic Janet Elise Johnson Anne Marie Kramer Tania Rands Lyon Jean C Robinson Iulia Shevchenko Svitlana Taraban and Shannon Woodcock
