Disability Studies Meets Microhistory Guðrún Valgerður Stefánsdóttir,Sólveig Ólafsdóttir,Sigurður Gylfi Magnússon,2024-08-13 This volume explores the life of Bjargey B b Kristj nsd ttir 1927 1999 an Icelandic woman with intellectual disabilities through analysis of her autobiography and personal archive

on the basis of the research disciplines of critical disability studies and microhistory B b who grew up in northern Iceland on a small farm called Berlin fell ill when she was in her first year and was afterward labeled feeble minded by her family and the local community When B b died she had finished a 145 000 word autobiography which she had written alone and kept secret from her family and neighbors very few of whom even knew that she could read and write This book aims to consider B b s life through her autobiography and other historical sources she created to identify how various historical social and cultural factors interacted and influenced her circumstances It explores B b s agency and how she managed to play her cards within the narrow scope given to her by society What makes B b s history extraordinary is precisely the direct connection to her world through her counter archive This book provides students and scholars of the humanities and the social sciences with a new way of critical thinking about both disciplines The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license
