

Dark Energy

I may be mad, I may be crazy, I may even be a fool
Not even an astronomer, cosmologist, or a physicist
Though a budding, poet of sorts, no equations, do I ever attempt to write Possessing incredulously heightened senses, of imaginary curiosities.

Universe formed in 3 primary divisions
Known; Ordinary matter, Dark matter
Unknown; invisible, Dark Energy, unseen by the naked eye
No scientific explanation, to date, given.

Given my perspective, light, and dark matter
Defined by Einstein's theory of relativity and equation, $E = MC^2$;
Dark energy, the opposite of the manifested reality,
the illusionary materialistic universe.

Unmanifested collective's spiritual energy
Not seen, though spoken about, since time immemorial Substantially infinitely smaller than the configuration of the essence of soul
Dynamism linking the astral body, mysterious abilities used in telekinesis...
Infinitely more elegant than perceived - Dark Energy.

A simple explanation of the expanding universe
Integral issues, regarding density

A soul descending to the materialistic manifested illusionary plane of reality, a new entity, a new spirit-born, filling the vacated emptiness An old soul in ascendance, the death of a symbiont host, an ascending spirit - no new soul born.

A universe of intrinsic values, beauteous mathematical bounties
I may be madder than a hatter, crazier than a lunatic; whatever that may be;
Darkened skies infusing, looming over me, bringing a smile, or two, perhaps,
to the respectful but amused scientific community
But what if, if, my carefree spiritualistic imaginings, are right, regarding - Dark Energy?

Dark Matter Aase Berg, 2013 Poetry Translated from the Swedish by Johannes Goransson Berg's hallucinatory post cataclysmic epic takes place in an unremitting future past The bodies mutate and hybridize They are erotic and artificial art and adrenaline Available for the first time in English as a complete collection the poems of this contemporary Swedish classic contaminate as they become contaminated drawing on and altering source texts that range from The Texas Chainsaw Massacre to string theory Calling on fables science the pastoral and the body DARK MATTER aggravates their perception while exhausting poetry down to its nerve a faint spasm of cheers before this the nervous system's last chance to communicate with the dying I The result a monstrous zone of linguistic and bodily interpenetration cell death and radiant permutations Extraordinary and urgent a coded warning smuggled out of dark China Mieville Aase Berg's poetry is discomfiting because it lacks boundaries When I read her I notice how my consciousness tries to separate divide up and make sense of her almost hallucinatory images but they always glide back together I get nauseated and almost seasick from her texts

Asa Beckman Dark Matter Christopher Buckley, 1993 Poetry DARK MATTER is a beautifully focused book the work of a gifted poet coming at midlife into his full powers Time and the shifts of time are the burden not simply time as recollection or loss but also and everywhere the persistent loneliness of star time mastodon time so that finally these are poems in which reflection takes on uncommon amplitude and presence There is something here that is deeply human and courageous something like what I find in the essays of Loren Eiseley And all this would be nothing of course without the language which is the glory of these poems

Jean Janzen The power of Jeff Gundy's RHAPSODY WITH DARK MATTER stems from a distinctive tension where irony of the old sort with its attending terrors of Fate confronted is met with the wink and the strength of latter day knowledge Here are love poems tracts on faith and doubt paeans to the family memory and yes essays on Gospel Hour Radio where the likes of Albert Einstein and John Wooden may coexist on the same sturdy line This Midwestern rhapsody Jeff Gundy possesses an ancient lyric touch but also delightfully a sharp postmodern edge

A Matter of Dark Matter Kate Hutchinson,2022-03-30 In A Matter of Dark Matter Kate Hutchinson explores the facets of darkness and invisibility She makes mattering a polestar of her poetry keeping a keen eye on the Earth as half dark treasure she laments the disappearance of birds and trees shriveling ice masses and mounding plastic Hutchinson moves the dialogue with herself and the reader to measuring memories and experiences darkened by an ominous sense of invisibility vulnerable students a son who knows the constant bruise of his heart the disappearance of beloved wild places the challenges of body image The poems are both composed and starkly intimate but ultimately the reader joins the poet s triumph full out singing Eric Clapton in an empty grocery store a sawed in half woman stepping out of the box the small joys the poet relishes in these poems as she foot stamps against invisibility Hutchinson brings us hope that the Earth whispers still Gail Goepfert author of Self Portrait with Thorns and This Hard Business of Living We must love something just enough declares Kate Hutchinson at the end of her poem Cold This killer line coming at the beginning of A Matter of Dark Matter launches a journey through themes of fragility vulnerability and impermanence with bravery and fiercely acute perception Yet despite the shifting presence of a bird on the shoulder that demands its pound of flesh she is able to assert in Gentle Yoga Our arms and legs are made to move across the earth toward each other Never truer than in a time of COVID this is the voice of a woman who has reclaimed herself who never shrinks from the task at hand to look to see to accept and ultimately to be Peter Ludwin winner of the 2016 Muriel Craft Bailey Memorial Award for the poem Wolf Concerto and 2017 American Book Award nominee for Gone to Gold Mountain A Matter of Dark Matter demonstrates Kate Hutchinson s versatility with its thought provoking poems on science and social issues and poems inspired by her experiences as a child with a mother who was sick as a confused teen and as wife and teacher She is deft at writing both free and formal verse And sometimes a line like the bride waking with regret on her honeymoon pops out and slaps the reader s face but bits of humor and hope peek through like stars in a cloudy sky I highly recommend this collection Wilda Morris author of Pequod Poems Gamming with Moby Dick and past president of the Illinois State Poetry Society
