EDWARDS,2025-07-14 Becoming the Butterfly A Journey from Darkness to Light by Kristin Edwards urges readers to undergo the landscape of her formative years where the unstoppable invincible sensation of childhood innocence contradicts the dawning awareness of life s complications From the space of a free soul in the first log home where days were spent gardening with her father and evenings watching Aladdin to the shock of an early accident that abruptly shifted her direction Edwards gracefully demonstrates a childhood characterized by both delightful and surprising turns The second log home is a space of effervescent anticipation and helping her dad with construction where the warmth of family gatherings combines with the shadows of arising fears It leads to school experiences and the transition to homeschooling a course of change marked by contrasts the joy of rollerblading with her dad and the isolation of being sheltered As the venture progresses the tone changes reflecting the fracturing of family bonds the weight of separation and the eventual sudden loss that radiates a long shadow This book depicts the stability of human nature on its journey from darkness to light
