Dying and Death David Barton,1977      Dying and Health David Barton (ed),1977      Dying at Home Andrea Sankar,CM Cassady,Caitlin Cassady,2024-02-20 This will be the third edition of this title heavily updated from the 1999 second edition      The Cancer Patient and Supportive Care Donald J. Higby,2012-12-06 During the course of editing Supportive Care in Cancer Therapy Martin us Nijhoff Publishers 1983 it become apparent that several topics would have to await a second volume Furthermore development of new informa tion and evolution of ideas continues This volume continues the intent of the first to present reviews of issues relating to supportive care and to identify areas where further definition and further research is needed The physician reading this volume will find the contents though provok ing In addition to reviews authored by physicians there are chapters authored by non physicians who present a different perspective and a dif ferent style of writing Reverend Bigler writes from his long experience as a chaplain for cancer patients and tries to identify the changes that take place in the personality of the chaplain who works with dying patients Ms Kil lion and Ms Powell try to describe what an Oncology Nurse is rather than what one does Attorneys Reese and Price present a very practical summa tion of issues which face the cancer patient and their chapter could easily be copied and offered to one s patients furthermore this chapter gives direc tion to the physician who is frequently called upon for advice regarding issues which lie entirely outside his her formal training Excellent reviews on more medical subjects are here Cancer in the Elderly should provoke oncologists to re examine their approach to the geriatric patient      The Cancer Bulletin ,1980      Clinical Management of Bereavement George M. Burnell,Adrienne L. Burnell,1989 The purpose of this book is to give physicians nurses and social workers in the hospital setting some guidelines in the management of bereavement reactions following the death of an immediate family member      The Dying Time Joan Furman,David McNabb,1997 that addresses equally the concerns of those who are dying and those who have committed themselves to meeting their physical emotional and spiritual needs The choice of home hospital or hospice care the importance of basic nursing skills and recognizing the signs of a failing body are all considered with frankness and sensitivity      Guidelines for Oncology Nursing Practice Joan C. McNally,American Nurses' Association. Standards of oncology nursing practice,1991 The 2nd Edition of this highly successful clinical reference for oncology nursing presents detailed care guidelines for 67 nursing diagnoses related to the nine high incidence problem areas in oncology care The book includes guidelines that address bladder cancer prostate cancer HIV infection biotherapy and bone marrow transplant and fatigue and a section on decreased cardiac output The guidelines emphasize adaptation self care and rehabilitation of the patient and family      Analysis and Selection of Training Resources in Aging KWIC/ASTRA Training and Educational Resources in Aging (Project),1979      Grief Support Group Curriculum Linda Lehmann,Shane R. Jimerson,Ann Gaasch,2001 Contains lesson plans for 10 sessions that include age appropriate activities These fun and engaging activities enable young children to approach highly sensitive and painful topics

Guidelines for Cancer Nursing Practice Joan C. McNally, Joy Campbell Stair, Eileen T. Somerville, 1985 The Annals of the American Academy of Political and Social Science, 1980 Beyond the Innocence of Childhood: Helping children and adolescents cope with death and bereavement David Walter Adams, Eleanor J. Deveau, 1995 Death is not a mere possibility but a certainty for all of us Yet today s society unrealistically portrays childhood as a time of unremitant joy and freedom Unfortunately the reality of life may suddenly bring children face to face with tragic circumstances such as the death of their pet the terminal illness of their parent their own struggle with life threatening disease the accidental death of their sibling or the suicide of a friend The gravity of any of these situations takes children beyond the innocence of childhood and plunges them into a world that is frightening and full of uncertainty Unfortunately our perceptions and attitudes toward death do not equip children with the tools to help them cope adequately with such overwhelming experiences Beyond the Innocence of Childhood is a collection of forty chapters which are divided into three separate volumes The overall purpose of this series is to answer the question How do we as educators clinicians other professionals and parents help children and adolescents deal with threat to their lives dying death and bereavement In this three volume set the editors have brought together a number of well known educators researchers and practitioners who share their knowledge and expertise concerning the care and well being of children and adolescents Specific to Volume 2 The first part of the second volume of Beyond the Innocence of Childhood focuses on the difficulties and challenges that children and adolescents must face as they try to cope with life threatening illness or attempted suicide Therapeutic techniques are explained and useful intervention strategies are offered to health care providers and other professionals Highlights of this section include The use of art Storytelling Music therapy Therapeutic play Benefits of humor and laughter Pets as a source of empowerment Camps as a therapeutic adjunct Etiology and treatment of suicidal adolescents Suffering imposed by life threatening illness The second part of this volume directly addresses the world of dying children and families whose lives are permanently changed and filled with difficult emotions and formidable challenges A comprehensive review of factors which influence the dying process and useful guidelines for intervention are provided for caregivers other professionals and parents Features of this section include Palliative care Hospital care versus home care Lessons from dying adolescents Therapeutic imagery for pain control Truthtelling Influence of spirituality Developing a children s hospice Storytelling and reading resource Clinical Bulletin, 1980

Comprehensive Cardiac Care Kathleen G. Andreoli, 1983 Treatment of Complicated Mourning Therese A. Rando, Christine M. Nezu, 1993 Focuses specifically on complicated mourning often referred to as pathological unresolved or abnormal grief It provides caregivers with practical therapeutic strategies and specific interventions that are necessary when traditional grief counseling is insufficient The goal is to turn complicated into uncomplicated mourning Introductory Medical Surgical Nursing Jeanne C. Scherer, 1982 Loss and Anticipatory Grief Therese A. Rando, 1986 Journal of Palliative Care, 1991 The Journal of Long Term Care Administration, 1977
