Dynamic Diversity In Southern Thailand:

Dynamic Diversity in Southern Thailand Wattana Sugunnasil, 2005 The twelve articles making up this volume examine a wide range of social political and economic issues in southern Thailand focusing on particular questions such as Is Islam compatible with Thai nationalism and the ideals of the Thai state What features make southern Thai politics unique What are some social consequences of top down development projects in the South How has subregional development affected southern Thailand To what extent are women involved in community development in the South Other articles investigate the consumption practices in a rural border community the nang talung shadow puppet theater the Hat Yai Vegetarian Festival the feminization of nora spirit mediumship a Dhamma walk around Lake Songkhla to highlight ecological concerns the social relationship network of the Baba Chinese business community in Phuket and the cultural construction of a Thai community across the border in Kelantan The wide range of issues and ideas presented in this collection reveal the unique character of the region and the variety of cultures that contribute to its dynamic diversity BOOK JACKET Islam, Education, and Reform in Southern Thailand Joseph Chinyong Liow, 2009 This is a remarkable piece of scholarship that illuminates general and specific tendencies in Islamic education in South Thailand Armed with an enormous amount of rich empirical detail and an elegant writing style the author debunks the simplistic Orientalist conceptions of Wahhabi and Salafi influences on Islamic education in South Thailand This work will be a state of the art source for understanding the role of Islam and the ongoing conflict in this troubled region of Southeast Asia The book is significant for those scholars who are attempting to understand Muslim communities in Southeast Asia and also for those who want deep insights into Islamic education and its influence in any area of the Islamic world Raymond Scupin Professor of Anthropology and International Studies Lindenwood University USA Few books address the sensitive issue of Islamic education with empathy as well as critical distance as Joseph C Liow's Islam Education and Reform in Southern Thailand He examines global networks of religious learning within a local Thai as well as regional Asian context by brilliantly revealing the intersections between religion politics and modernity in an accessible and illuminating manner Traditional educational institutions rarely receive such sensitive and balanced treatment Liow's book is a tour de force and mandatory reading for policy makers academics and all of those interested in current affairs Ebrahim Moosa Associate Professor of Islamic Studies Department of Religion Associate Director Duke Islamic Studies Center DISC Duke University USA Islam Education and Reform in Southern Thailand is Joseph Chinyong Liow's critical attempt to map out the reflexive questioning locations of authority dynamics and contestations within the Muslim community over what constitutes Islamic knowledge and education Through the optics of Islamic education in Southern Thailand Liow manages to brilliantly portray the ways in which Muslim minority negotiate their lives in the local context of violence and the global context of crisis of modernity Chaiwat Satha Anand Senior Research Scholar Thailand Research Fund Author of The Life of this World Negotiated Muslim Lives in Thai Society Rebellion in Southern Thailand Thanet Aphornsuvan,2006-12-01 This study addresses the competing histories of Thailand and Patani beginning in the fourteenth century up to the mid twentieth century It provides an explanation of the causes of ongoing political conflict between the Malay Muslims in the three southernmost provinces of Thailand and the Thai government against which separatist movements fought in the 1960s Even though January 2004 marked the beginning of the current violence that now plagues Thailand s south most people in and outside the area still believe that the nature of such conflict is internal and could be resolved peacefully The major contention in the competing histories of Siam and Patani revolves around national policies that resulted in discrimination and destruction of the Muslim s cultural identity and rights In the early twentieth century under the rule of King Chulalongkorn which was characterized by centralization and cultural suppression Patani was reduced to a mere province Further forced assimilation occurred under the Phibun government in the 1940s at which time Islamic practices and the use of the Yawi language were curbed The sources of political conflict including the political status of Patani ethnic identity Bangkok politics and bureaucratic misconduct in the south have historical roots Understanding and appreciation of each other s culture and ethno religious identities could lead to positive political will on both sides for peaceful resolution of the conflict

Redefining Diversity and Dynamics of Natural Resources

Management in Asia, Volume 1 Ganesh Shivakoti,Ujjwal Pradhan,Helmi Helmi,2016-09-01 Redefining Diversity and Dynamics of Natural Resources Management in Asia Volumes 1 4 brings together scientific research and policy issues across various topographical area in Asia to provide a comprehensive overview of the issues facing the region Sustainable Natural Resources Management in Dynamic Southeast Asia Volume 1 pulls together regional experts in the field to look specifically at sustainability issues across the region to see what has been implemented what the impacts have been and what other options are available In the race to be a developed region many Southeast Asian countries have foregone natural resources through haphazard use As a result the people are faced with numerous environmental challenges particularly deforestation and forest degradation biodiversity loss and ecosystem degradation reduction in soil quality and decreases in the quantity of available water Community based forest management is the involvement of local communities in the protection conservation and management of public forests to prevent degradation through sustainable practices while still responding to the basic social and economic needs of local populations When the people who depend on forest resources for their livelihoods are jointly responsible for managing and protecting them they tend to do so in a more sustainable manner by focusing on the long term benefits rather than the immediate short term gains However when tenure rights are weak unclear or insecure or offer limited benefits people are incited in extracting more immediate benefits resulting in suboptimal forest management and the reduction of carbon stocks Features case studies that cover issues such as rising levels of deforestation forest degradation regional food security ecosystem degradation biodiversity loss conflicts over natural resource use water management issues and impacts on local communities Includes contributions from local researchers who are dealing with these issues first hand and on a daily basis Includes a comparative review on REDD implementation in different communities Focuses on sustainability issues across the region Promoting Conflict or Peace through Identity Nikki R. Slocum-Bradley,2016-04-15 Developing a solid basis for future research and training this illuminating volume facilitates peace and mutual understanding between people by addressing a root cause of social conflicts identity constructions The volume encompasses eight revealing empirical case studies from regions throughout the world conducted by experts from diverse disciplinary backgrounds Each case study examines how identities are being constructed and used in the region how these identities are related to borders and in what ways identity constructions foment peace or conflict The volume summarizes insights gleaned from these studies and formulates an analytical framework for understanding the role of identity constructions in conflict or peace

Contemporary Socio-Cultural and Political Perspectives in Thailand Pranee Liamputtong,2014-01-13 This volume examines contemporary Thailand It captures aspects of Thai society that have changed dramatically over the past years and that have turned Thailand into a society that is different from what most people outside the country know and expect The social transition of Thailand has been marked by economic growth population restructuring social and cultural development political movements and many reforms including the national health care system The book covers the social cultural and economic changes as well as political situations It discusses both historical contexts and emerging issues It includes chapters on social and public health concerns and on ethnicity gender sexuality and social class Most chapters use information from empirical based and historical research They describe real life experiences of the contributors and Thai people who participated in the research Culture and Electoral Politics in Southern Thailand Marc Askew,2006 Dynamics of Human Diversity N. J. Enfield,2011 Understanding Conflict and Approaching Peace in Southern Thailand Imtiyaz Yusuf,Lars Peter Schmidt,2006 European Journal of East Asian Studies ,2006 Islam, Minorities and Identity in Southeast Asia Ahmad Suaedy,2018 The Islamist Threat in Southeast Asia John Thayer Sidel,2007 In recent years a steady stream of reportage and commentary has spotlighted a dangerous Islamist threat in Southeast Asia This study by contrast offers a very different account In descriptive terms this study suggests that such an alarmist picture is highly overdrawn and it traces instead a pattern of marked decline demobilization and disentanglement from state power in recent years for Islamist forces in Southeast Asia This trend is evident both in the disappointments experienced in recent years by previously ascendant Islamist forces in Indonesia and Malaysia and in the diminished position of Muslim power brokers in southern Thailand and the Philippines after more than a decade of cooperation with non Muslim politicians in Manila and Bangkok In explanatory terms moreover this study shows the significance of social and political context A fuller appreciation of aggression by anti Islamists and non Muslims and of the insecurity weakness and fractiousness of Islamist forces themselves helps to explain the nature extent and limitations of Islamist violence aggression and assertiveness This overarching alternative framework not only provides a very different explanation for the Islamist threat in Southeast Asia but also suggests very different policy implications from those offered by specialists on terrorism working on the region

Bodily Practices and Medical Identities in Southern Thailand Claudia Merli, 2008 This study explores contemporary practices concerning women's and children's bodies with a special focus on postpartum practices the treatment of the afterbirth and its cosmological dimensions and male and female circumcision At the intersection between traditional midwifery and modern medicine Muslim women cross the boundaries between different cosmologies and medical systems At the borders to Malaysia the Muslim minority in Thailand upholds postpartum practices which have been abandoned by the Thai Buddhists in the region making of the body a contested site of powers and identities Traditional midwives are pressured to limit their practices to rituals and massage The increasing use of medical technologies in the form of Caesarean section and modern contraceptives are perceived as leading to changes in the local ethnophysiology of female bodies The fluidity once characterising pre and postpartum bodily states has turned into an infertile rigidity exemplified by metaphors of a hardened body In official discourse a sharp line is drawn between outdated tradition and medical modernity at the same time as ethnic religious borders between Malay Muslims and Thai Buddhists are erased with the disappearance of old practices and the emergence of new Muslim identities and rituals Prodigious events and pregnancy losses led in the past to the formation of spirit cults managed by female mediums and represented a means of communication between Muslim and Buddhist lifeworlds As these events vanish under medical scrutiny and intervention on the one hand and a modernist reading of Islam on the other hand local ethnophysiological conceptions are lost Individual and social bodies are put under the medical dressage of biopolitics and a discourse on the Muslim minority is created to serve aims of internal colonialism

Performing Political Identity Marc Askew, 2008 Performing Political Identity is an anthropological account of the multi level dynamics that underlie the continuing electoral dominance of the Democrat Party in southern Thailand a conspicuous anomaly in Thailand's political landscape Based on extensive participant observation and interviews the book presents a detailed study of candidates support groups and election campaigns in the province of Songkhla in the eventful years 2004 and 2005 highlighting the intimate links between local and national politics Marc Askew argues that the Democrat ascendancy is based on a careful balance between pragmatics and poetics Pragmatics comprises the management of the ambitions and needs of key supporters in tightly knit informal political groups or phuak Poetics involves the cultivation of powerful myths connecting ordinary voters to an idea of the Democrat Party as an embodiment of the idealized qualities of southern Thainess and guardian of southern Thai political culture In the dramatic settings of political rallies southern Democrat voters and politicians alike perform their loyalty and identity as a moral community against political enemies who are demonized as their evil opposites bent on buying votes and eating the country From 2001 Thaksin Shinawatra's Thai Rak Thai Party although triumphant elsewhere in Thailand faced stubborn opposition in the south Again in 2005 against all national trends southern voters stubbornly reaffirmed their loyalty to the Democrats This book the first detailed treatment of the southern Democrat Party in action explores the symbolic and organizational strategies that the party employs to reproduce and sustain its regional political ascendancy Islamic Thought in Southeast Asia Kamaruzzaman Bustamam-Ahmad, Patrick Jory, 2013 Community in ASEAN Siew Yean Tham, Poh Ping Lee, Norani Othman, 2008 Diversity and Dynamics of Plant Life in Sumatra: Report and collection of papers Mitsuru Hotta, 1986 Zeitschrift für Ethnologie, 2008 Militant Islam in Southeast Asia, 2006 Political Governance and Minority Rights Lipi Ghosh, 2009 Based on in depth investigation of some of the lasting minority majority conflicts of the postcolonial period this book analyses the current scenario in South and Southeast Asia with respect to the position of minority groups
