Future West William Henry Katerberg,2008 What is the future of the American West This book look at works of utopian dystopian and apocalyptic science fiction to show how narratives of the past and future powerfully shape our understanding of the present day West Shifting Worlds Rebecca J. Holden,1999 Technology and Values Craig Hanks,2009-05-04 This anthology features essays and book excerpts on technology and values written by preeminent figures in the field from the early 20th century to the present It offers an in depth range of readings on important applied issues in technology as well Useful in addressing questions on philosophy sociology and theory of technology Includes wide ranging coverage on metaphysics ethics and politics as well as issues relating to gender biotechnology everyday artifacts and architecture A good supplemental text for courses on moral or political problems in which contemporary technology is a unit of focus An accessible and thought provoking book for beginning and advanced undergraduates yet also a helpful resource for graduate students and academics Simians, Cyborgs, and Women Donna Haraway,2013-05-13 Simians Cyborgs and Women is a powerful collection of ten essays written between 1978 and 1989 Although on the surface simians cyborgs and women may seem an odd threesome Haraway describes their profound link as creatures which have had a great destabilizing place in Western evolutionary technology and biology Throughout this book Haraway analyzes accounts narratives and stories of the creation of nature living organisms and cyborgs At once a social reality and a science fiction the cyborg a hybrid of organism and machine represents transgressed boundaries and intense fusions of the nature culture split By providing an escape from rigid dualisms the cyborg exists in a post gender world and as such holds immense possibilities for modern feminists Haraway s recent book Primate Visions has been called outstanding original and brilliant by leading scholars in the field First published in 1991 Science Fiction Curriculum, Cyborg Teachers, & Youth Culture(s) John A. Weaver,Karen Anijar,Toby Daspit,2004 Science Fiction Curriculum Cyborg Teachers and Youth Culture s is a collection of essays sutured together by their use of science fiction as a departure from contemporary educational realities The authors inspired by the visions styles and insights of various science fiction texts films and rap music seek to transform the future of educational possibilities Science Fiction Curriculum offers alternative paths to current regressive educational practices policies and reforms and invites readers to venture into uncharted dimensions Social Theories for the Anthropocene Phoebe Godfrey,Ordoitz Galilea,2025-11-24 This unique textbook introduces undergraduate students to key social theories from classical multicultural global and indigenous perspectives while also inviting them to understand social theories as stories that create our culturally specific social realities The readings in this collection emphasize the ways our culturally perceived social environmental divide has historically been constructed to the detriment of both society and the environment Social Theories for the Anthropocene offers students the theoretical tools necessary to re imagine and re dream First to re imagine what it means to be human as we culturally define it Second to rethink how to apply such new possibilities to the transformation of Western culture from its current self destructive trajectory to something more equitable and more sustainable Placing readings from classical social theory in dialogue with writings from a diverse range of modern thinkers this timely reader will be indispensable for undergraduate students and instructors undertaking courses on social theory the environment climate change and ecology
