Diaries Real and Fictional in Twentieth-Century French Writing Sam Ferguson,2018-03-16 This volume is the first study of the diary in French writing across the twentieth century as a genre which includes both fictional and non-fictional works From the 1880s it became apparent to writers in France that their diaries a supposedly private form of writing would probably come to be published strongly affecting the way their readers viewed their other published works and their very persona as an author More than any other Andr Gide embraced the literary potential of the diary the first part of this book follows his experimentation with the diary in the fictional works Les Cahiers d'Andr Walter 1891 and Paludes 1895 in his diary of the composition of his great novel Le Journal des faux monnayeurs 1926 and in his monumental Journal 1889 1939 1939 The second part follows developments in diary writing after the Second World War inflected by radical changes in attitudes towards the writing subject Raymond Queneau's works published under the pseudonym of Sally Mara 1947 1962 used the diary playfully at a time when the writing subject was condemned by the literary avant-garde Roland Barthes's experiments with the diary 1977 1979 took it to the extremes of its formal possibilities at the point of a return of the writing subject Annie Ernaux's published diaries 1993 2011 demonstrate the role of the diary in the modern field of life writing Throughout the century the diary has repeatedly been used to construct an oeuvre and author but also to call these fundamental literary concepts into question

Hervé Guibert Jean Pierre Boulé,1999-03-01 This is the first full-length study to cover the complete texts of Hervé Guibert 1955 1991 offering a thorough documentation of his literary output The book is guided by Guibert's relation to the novel a major line of enquiry throughout as well as his experimentation with voices in particular One of Boulé's main contentions is that Guibert arrives at the creation of a new literary genre the roman faux with the publication of his best-known work To the Friend who did not save my life The book ends by considering the works Guibert produced after he was diagnosed as HIV positive within the parameter of the voices of the self representations of HIV AIDS Almost forty years after the first reported cases of what would later be defined as AIDS this book looks back across the decades at works of literature and film to discuss how the representation of HIV AIDS has shifted in media This book argues that literature constitutes a very powerful response to AIDS that ripples into film and politics driving the changes in past and contemporary representations of HIV AIDS The book also expands discussion of the issues generated and amplified by the epidemic to consider how HIV AIDS has been portrayed in the United States Western and Southern Africa Western Europe and East Asia
