Dadaism Basic Art S:

The Visual Arts in Germany, 1890-1937 Shearer West, 2000 This work provides an introduction to the visual arts in Germany from the early years of German unification to World War II The study is an analysis of painting sculpture graphic art design film and photography in relation to a wider set of cultural and social issues that were specific to German modernism It concentrates on the ways in which the production and reception of art interacted with and was affected by responses to unification conflict between left and right political factions gender concerns contemporary philosophical and religious ideas the growth of cities and the increasing important of mass culture Innovation in the Arts Jason C. White, 2022-08-01 This concise guide aims to increase what we understand by innovation in the arts and identify and support opportunities and strategies for the unique ways in which artists and arts administrators think about engage in and pursue successful innovation in their diverse creative practice Innovations in the Arts are often marginalised from a research perspective in part because of the lack of a sound and compelling theoretical framework to support and explain process distinctions from business and management innovation This book identifies three key concepts art innovation art movement innovation and audience experience innovation supported by formal theory for each concept presented and evidenced through case studies in art history In this way the book enables readers to identify explain and support their innovation efforts as visual literary and performing artists and arts administrators It also explores strategies for pursuing innovation in practice Drawing attention to the unique ways in which artists and arts administrators think about and engage in innovation this readable book will be an essential reading for students in all aspects of the creative and cultural industries and an essential guide to developing and promoting innovation in the arts for practitioners and researchers alike Crisis and the Arts: The import of nothing : how Dada came, saw, and vanished in the Low Countries (1915-1929) Stephen C. Foster, 1996 In examining Dada in the Low Countries Hubert van den Berg is faced with a complex situation that as much critiqued as embraced Dada Largely an individual affair and lacking the community center of Dada in Zurich Berlin and the other Dada capitals van den Berg focuses equally on Dada s reception and on its exercise Primarily a case of selective appropriation Dada in the Low Countries nevertheless possessed an international reach achieved in the relationships it posed between Dada and the Post World War I Constructivist International and De Stijl For the author Dada in Belgium and the Netherlands is less a case of its story than of specific cases of its use The involvement of Clement Pansaers Paul van Ostaijen Theo van Doesburg and German artist Kurt Schwitters figure prominently in the historical mapping of van den Berg s complex and elusive subject Arts and Culture: An Introduction to the Humanities Janetta Benton, Janetta Rebold Benton, Robert J. DiYanni, 2013-11-01 For an undergraduate introductory level course in humanities An introduction to the world s major civilizations This Fourth Edition is an introduction to the world s major civilizations to their artistic achievements their history and their cultures Through an integrated approach to the humanities Arts and Culture offers an opportunity to view works of art read literature and listen to music in historical and cultural contexts In studying the humanities we focus our attention on works of art literature and music that reflect and embody the central values and beliefs of particular cultures and specific historical moments
