Dark Back Of Time Novel:

Dark Back of Time Javier Marías, 2001 A book by Spain's greatest living writer weaves fiction and fact into a completely original and unforgettable hybrid Called by its author a false novel Dark Back of Time begins with the tale of the odd effects of publishing All Souls his witty and sardonic 1989 Oxford novel All Souls is a book Marías swears to be fiction but which its characters the real life dons and professors and bookshop owners who have recognized themselves fiercely maintain to be a roman clef With the sleepy world of Oxford set into fretful motion by a world that never existed Dark Back of Time begins an odyssey into the nature of identity and of time Marías weaves together autobiography a legendary kingdom strange ghostly literary figures halls of mirrors a one eyed pilot a curse in Havana and a bullet lost in Mexico Liminal Fiction at the Edge of the Millennium Jessica A. Folkart, 2014-10-08 Liminal Fiction at the Edge of the Millennium The Ends of Spanish Identity investigates the predominant perception of liminality identity situated at a threshold neither one thing nor another but simultaneously both and neither caused by encounters with otherness while negotiating identity in contemporary Spain Examining how identity and alterity are parleyed through the cultural concerns of historical memory gender roles sex religion nationalism and immigration this study demonstrates how fictional representations of reality converge in a common structure wherein the end is not the end but rather an edge a liminal ground On the border between two identities the end materializes as an ephemeral limit that delineates and differentiates yet also adjoins and approximates In exploring the ends of Spanish fiction both their structure and their intentionality Liminal Fiction maps the edge as a constitutive component of narrative and identity in texts by Najat El Hachmi Cristina Fernández Cubas Javier Marías Rosa Montero and Manuel Rivas In their representation of identity on the edge these fictions enact and embody the liminal not as simply a transitional and transient mode but as the structuring principle of identification in contemporary Spain Experiments in Life-Writing Lucia Boldrini, Julia Novak, 2017-10-24 This volume examines innovative intersections of life writing and experimental fiction in the 20th and 21st centuries bringing together scholars and practicing biographers from several disciplines Modern Languages English and Comparative Literature Creative Writing It covers a broad range of biographical autobiographical and hybrid practices in a variety of national literatures among them many recent works texts that test the ground between fact and fiction that are marked by impressionist self reflexive and intermedial methods by their recourse to myth folklore poetry or drama as they tell a historical character's story Between them the essays shed light on the broad range of autobiographical experimentation in modern Europe and will appeal to readers with an interest in the history and politics of form in life writing in the ways in which departures from traditional generic paradigms are intricately linked with specific views of subjectivity with questions of personal communal and national identity The Introduction of this book is open access under a CC BY 4.0 license via link.springer.com Visitors from beyond the Grave Dámaris Romero-González, Israel Muñoz-Gallarte, Gabriel Laguna-Mariscal, 2019 The monograph deals with the topic of ghosts in universal literature from a polyhedral perspective making use of different perspectives all of which highlight the resilience of these figures from the very beginning of literature up to the present day Therefore the aim of this volume is to focus on how ghosts have been translated and transformed over the years within literature written in the following languages Classical Greek and Latin Spanish Italian and English

A Companion to Javier Marías David K. Herzberger,2011 This book provides the most comprehensive study to date of the full range of Marias writing including discussion and analysis of his literary and intellectual formation his development as a novelist and short story writer and his unique perspective offered in nearly twenty five years of newspaper columns on topics ranging from religion to football Above all Marias is examined as a writer of fictions As a translator of several canonical works from English to Spanish Marias came to appreciate the preciseness of words as well as their ambiguity their capacity to represent as well as their propensity to distort The author examines Marias s constant awareness of how language can be used to construct stories as the foundation for engaging the world as well as for imagining it The nature of Marias s storytelling and the way in which he imagines form the principal focus of this Companion Publisher description
