Campbell, 1986 "Darkness Visible", 1986 Onze kardinaal, 1946 John Martin: Sketches of My Life John Martin, 2013-09-05 In February and March of 1849 the Illustrated London News carried a series of announcements about the works of the painter John Martin being exhibited at the British Institution the third of which included an account of his early life On the 17 March the paper received a long letter from the artist reproduced here in full in which he demands a right of reply Their article is he claims so unfortunate a tissue of errors from beginning to end that it can only have the effect of misleading your readers Martin's brief autobiography makes fascinating reading Beginning with his youth in Newcastle where he was apprenticed to a coach builder it recounts his initial struggles in London and the eventual recognition accorded to his vast apocalyptic landscape painting and stunning engravings ending with the civic works he devoted himself to in later years The reader is left in awe of Martin's determination and drive With an introduction by Martin Myrone Lead Curator of Pre 1800 British Art at Tate Britain this engaging book provides many new insights into the work of this extraordinary painter of sublime landscapes and the times in which he lived Picturing the Romantic Elisabeth Ansel, Johannes Grave, Christin Neubauer, Mira Claire Zadrozny, 2025-09-30 European Romanticism in the visual arts has always been defined by transnational transfer processes It is surprising that international aspects of Romantic movements have been in contrast to literary studies a gap in art historical research Picturing the Romantic addresses this issue and reveals new perspectives on European Romanticism's in the visual arts by reconsidering the phenomenon's traditional canon geographical dimensions and terminology and analysing various examples of the complex and heterogeneous works of Romantic painting In fifteen original essays renowned and early career researchers examine the question of whether to speak of several independently considered Romanticisms or one European Romanticism They adopt a transnational perspective on Romantic art in and beyond Europe focusing on the interconnections between the countries Art Books Wolfgang M.
