Duchess Of Devonshires Ball:

The Duchess of Devonshire's Ball Sophia Murphy, 1984 Depicts the fancy dress ball hosted by the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire in 1897 to celebrate the Diamond Jubilee of Queen Victoria Myth and National Identity in Nineteenth-Century Britain Stephanie Barczewski, 2000-03-02 Scholars have become increasingly interested in how modern national consciousness comes into being through fictional narratives Literature is of particular importance to this process for it is responsible for tracing the nations evolution through glorious tales of its history In nineteenth century Britain the legends of King Arthur and Robin Hood played an important role in construction of contemporary national identity These two legends provide excellent windows through which to view British culture because they provide very different perspectives King Arthur and Robin Hood have traditionally been diametrically opposed in terms of their ideological orientation The former is a king a man at the pinnacle of the social and political hierarchy whereas the latter is an outlaw and is therefore completely outside conventional hierarchical structures The fact that two such different figures could simultaneously function as British national heroes suggests that nineteenth century British nationalism did not represent a single set of values and ideas but rather that it was forced to assimilate a variety of competing points of view Lady's Realm , 1897 Dance Carol Wallace, 1986 Twirling figures gloved hands clasped the strains of the violin These words from the first essay in this delightful book could be describing an eighteenth century minuet performed by aristocratic guests at a Versailles ball a nineteenth century cotillion of white gowned debutantes in new York or a stylish moment created on the silver screen by Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers The steps and the music and the dresses may vary but the exciting and elegant sight of society enjoying itself on the dance floor has persisted through the ages In this book published to coincide with an exhibition held at the Costume Institute of the Metropolitan Museum of Art under the direction of Diana Vreeland four authors look at the subject of social dancing from four different points of view Carol McD Wallace surveys the great balls and dancing parties of Europe England and America from the eighteenth century to the present while Don McDonagh describes the dance steps themselves from the early basse danze of Italy to the twist of modern day America Jean Druessedow associate curator in charge of the Costume Institute discusses the evolution of the ball gown and other costumes designed for dancing and Laurence Libin curator of musical instruments assisted by Constance Old analyzes the way in which dance has been depicted in works of art through the centuries Illustrated with paintings works of decorative art contemporary prints and photographs these lively essays re create the rhythmic energy the social proprieties the colorful costumes and anecdotes of dances and dancers past and present from dust jacket The Duke of Devonshire Henry Leach, 1904 Munsey's Magazine for ... , 1898 His Most Gracious Majesty, King Edward VII Marie Belloc Lowndes, 1901 Munsey's Magazine , 1898 Munsey's Weekly , 1898 The Sphere , 1902 H.
