

Société et immobilisme social

Transformations sociales : La société québécoise était en pleine transformation pendant cette période. L'urbanisation s'accélérait, les modes de vie changeaient et les idées évoluaient. Cependant, Duplessis s'opposait aux changements sociaux et cherchait à maintenir un certain immobilisme.

Opposition aux mouvements sociaux : Son gouvernement a réprimé les mouvements sociaux, notamment les syndicats et les groupes féministes, qui réclamaient plus de droits et de justice sociale.

Relations avec Ottawa

Défense de l'autonomie du Québec : Duplessis était un ardent défenseur de l'autonomie du Québec et s'opposait à toute ingérence du gouvernement fédéral dans les affaires provinciales. Il a souvent eu des conflits avec Ottawa sur des questions de compétence et de financement.
