Dying Colonialism:

A Dying Colonialism Frantz Fanon, 2022-09-27 Frantz Fanon's seminal work on anticolonialism and the fifth year of the Algerian Revolution. Psychiatrist, humanist, revolutionary. Frantz Fanon was one of the great political analysts of our time, the author of such seminal works of modern revolutionary theory as The Wretched of the Earth and Black Skin White Masks. He has had a profound impact on civil rights, anticolonialism, and Black consciousness movements around the world. A Dying Colonialism is Fanon's incisive and illuminating account of how, during the Algerian Revolution, the people of Algeria changed centuries-old cultural patterns and embraced certain ancient cultural practices long derided by their colonialist oppressors as primitive in order to destroy those oppressors. Fanon uses the fifth year of the Algerian Revolution as a point of departure for an explication of the inevitable dynamics of colonial oppression. This is a strong, lucid, and militant book to read; it is to understand why Fanon says that for the colonized, having a gun is the only chance you still have of giving a meaning to your death.

The Aesthetic Life of Infrastructure Kelly M. Rich, Nicole M. Rizzuto, Susan Zieger, 2022-12-15 A critical reading of the unstable structures that organize biological and social life. This timely and radically interdisciplinary volume uncovers the aesthetics and politics of infrastructure. From roads and bridges to harbors and canals, infrastructure is conventionally understood as the public works that allow for the circulation of capital. Yet this naturalized concept of infrastructure, driven by capital's restless expansion, is haunted by imperial tendencies to occupy territory, extract resources, and organize life. Infrastructure thus undergirds the living nexus of modernity in an ongoing project of racialization, affective embodiment, and environmental praxis. Rather than merely making visible infrastructure's modes of power, however, The Aesthetic Life of Infrastructure brings literary methods to bear on the interpretive terrain, reading infrastructural space and temporalities to show that their aesthetic and sensorial experience cannot be understood apart from histories of production and political economies. Building on critical infrastructure studies in anthropology, geography, and media studies, this collection demonstrates the field's vitality to scholars working across the humanities.

including in literary visual and cultural studies By querying the presumed invisibility of infrastructure's hidden life the volume's contributors revitalize ongoing literary debates about reading surface and depth How they ask might infrastructure and aesthetics then function as epistemic tools for rethinking each other And what urgency do they acquire in light of current crises that bear on death whether biological social or planetary Universal Citizenship R. Andrés Guzmán, 2019-01-15

Recently many critics have questioned the idea of universal citizenship by pointing to the racial class and gendered exclusions on which the notion of universality rests Rather than jettison the idea of universal citizenship however R. Andrés Guzmán builds on these critiques to reaffirm it especially within the fields of Latina/o and ethnic studies Beyond conceptualizing citizenship as an outcome of recognition and admittance by the nation state in a negotiation for the right to have rights he asserts that insofar as universal citizenship entails a forceful entrance into the political from the latter's foundational exclusions it emerges at the limits of legality and illegality via a process that exceeds identitarian capture Drawing on Lacanian psychoanalysis and philosopher Alain Badiou's notion of generic politics Guzmán advances his argument through close analyses of various literary cultural and legal texts that foreground contention over the limits of political belonging These include the French Revolution responses to Arizona's H.B. 2281 the 2006 immigrant rights protests in the United States the writings of Oscar Zeta Acosta Frantz Fanon's account of Algeria's anticolonial struggle and more In each case Guzmán traces the advent of the citizen as a collective subject made up of anyone who seeks to radically transform the organizational coordinates of the place in which she or he lives Whither Fanon? David Marriott, 2018-06-05

Frantz Fanon may be most known for his more obviously political writings but in the first instance he was a clinician a black Caribbean psychiatrist who had the improbable task of treating disturbed and traumatized North African patients during the wars of decolonization Investigating and foregrounding the clinical system that Fanon devised in an attempt to intervene against negrophobia and anti-blackness this book rereads his clinical and political work together arguing that the two are mutually imbricated For the first time Fanon's therapeutic innovations are considered along with his more overtly political and cultural writings to ask how the crises of war affected his practice informed his politics and shaped his subsequent ideas As David Marriott suggests this combination of the clinical and political involves a psychopolitics that is by definition complex difficult and perpetually challenging He details this psychopolitics from two points of view focusing first on Fanon's sociotherapy its diagnostic methods and concepts and second on Fanon's cultural theory more generally In our present climate of fear and terror over black presence and the violence to which it gives rise Whither Fanon reminds us of Fanon's scandalous actuality and of the continued urgency of his message Subterranean Fanon Gavin Arnall, 2020-08-18

The problem of change recurs across Frantz Fanon's writings As a philosopher psychiatrist and revolutionary Fanon was deeply committed to theorizing and instigating change in all of its facets Change is the thread that ties together his critical dialogue with Hegel Marx Freud and Nietzsche and his intellectual exchange with C. S. Lewis Kojève and Sartre It informs his analysis of racism and colonialism in gritude and the veil language and culture disalienation and decolonization and it underpins his reflections on Martinique Algeria the Caribbean Africa the Third World and the world at large Gavin Arnall traces an internal division throughout Fanon s work between two distinct modes of thinking about change He contends that there are two Fanons a dominant Fanon who conceives of change as a dialectical process of becoming and a subterranean Fanon who experiments with an even more explosive underground theory of transformation Arnall offers close readings of Fanon s entire oeuvre from canonical works like Black Skin White Masks and The Wretched of the Earth to his psychiatric papers and recently published materials including his play Parallel Hands Speaking both to scholars and to the continued vitality of Fanon s ideas among today s social movements this book offers a rigorous and profoundly original engagement with Fanon that affirms his importance in the effort to bring about radical change web oct 10 2020 for path ii we must take $v_2 d d t$ keeping only terms of leading order in $d d$ the action difference between the two paths $s_2 s_1$ $m d d t$ so the phase difference $s_2 s_1 \hbar m v d \hbar 2 \pi p d h 2 \pi d \lambda$ this is the known correct result and this fixes the constant multiplying the action h in the expression for the path
