Dying Of The Light:

The Dying of the Light Donald J. Richardson, 2009-11-20 As a community volunteer for several years I have come to know many elderly people to listen to the stories of their lives and to witness their needs and complaints Some are no longer with us of course but others soldier on enduring life's challenges suffering ungrateful children and combating an indifferent society One important discovery I have made is that it is elemental to listen The listening is the best and most affirmative part of my service to the elderly Hardly anyone actually cares what they say or what they think It is necessary that their voices be heard What I have tried to do in The Dying of the Light is to restore their voices

Dying of the Light George R. R. Martin, 2004-09-28 In this unforgettable space opera 1 New York Times bestselling author George R R Martin presents a chilling vision of eternal night a volatile world where cultures clash codes of honor do not exist and the hunter and the hunted are often interchangeable A whisperjewel has summoned Dirk t Larien to Worlorn and a love he thinks he lost But Worlorn isn't the world Dirk imagined and Gwen Delvano is no longer the woman he once knew She is bound to another man and to a dying planet that is trapped in twilight Gwen needs Dirk's protection and he will do anything to keep her safe even if it means challenging the barbaric man who has claimed her But an impenetrable veil of secrecy surrounds them all and it's becoming impossible for Dirk to distinguish between his allies and his enemies In this dangerous triangle one is hurtling toward escape another toward revenge and the last toward a brutal untimely demise Praise for Dying of the Light Dying of the Light blew the doors off of my idea of what fiction could be and could do what a work of unbridled imagination could make a reader feel and believe Michael Chabon Slick science fiction the Wild West in outer space Los Angeles Times Something special which will keep Worlorn and its people in the reader's mind long after the final page is read Galileo magazine The galactic background is excellent Martin knows how to hold the reader Asimov's George R R Martin has the voice of a poet and a mind like a steel trap Algis Budrys

Against the Dying of the Light Leonard Fein, 2004 A father's struggle to understand his daughter's sudden death becomes a ruthlessly honest lyrical and wise exploration of life Takes the experience of loss beyond the confines of the personal finding universal meaning and hope in the details of grief

The Dying of the Light James Tunstead Burtchaell, 1998 James Tunstead Burtchaell who has extensive experience in American higher education as both a teacher and an administrator provides case studies of seventeen prominent colleges and universities with diverse ecclesial origins Congregational Presbyterian Methodist Baptist Lutheran Catholic and Evangelical Using published and archival sources as well as firsthand interaction with each institution he covers Burtchaell narrates how each school's religious identity eventually became first uncomfortable and then expendable and he analyzes the processes that eroded the bonds between school and church
