Just Dust: An Improbable Marine's Vietnam Story Wes Choc, 2014-06 From San Diego to Da Nang from Hill 55 to Khe Sanh followed by perplexing prospects in Washington DC this is a unique sojourn about a few bizarre events introspections and serendipitous choices encountered by a skeptical eye squinting Marine Just Dust: An Improbable Marine's Vietnam Story is the first person account of a reluctant serviceman It is the story of how a young man unprepared to make meaningful decisions decides to join the US Marine Corps in 1965 Skinny tall and a self proclaimed wimp Wes Choc sweats through boot camp isolating himself and not making many friends He is so different that only leftover boots from WWII fit his oddly sized feet Posted to two historically significant places Hill 55 and Khe Sanh the author details his time in Vietnam including jobs examining personal effects of those killed in action to finally returning home to unimagined pursuits in Washington DC Despite being at the forefront of the Vietnam War the author does not tell the typical war story Evaluative and observational Just Dust is more journal than history more about trying to fit in than being admired This pensive narrative from a contemplative skeptic poses questions that many will identify with from their own parallel journeys What core values nurtured by the military process also offer important life lessons Are unconventionalities in experience or attitude things that make one more worthy as a person or less worthy a Marine What was gained from the Vietnam experience that mattered the most In the end the author's meditations lead him to understand what Semper parat means to him
